

DAVID:

SUNSHINE

Driving through the mountains when they're covered with snow!

Jasmine incense

A girl wearing a soft flowing dress

Walking along the beach when there isn't another person around for miles

Sitting before a cozy fire, strumming my guitar

Waking up in the morning to the chirping of birds

Girls, but especially YOU

Going out for a delicious lobster dinner at a groovy seaside restaurant

Scuba diving

Watching the sun set and seeing all those beautiful colors disappear into the sky

Concerts! When I'm singing to you and I can feel all our love pouring to one another

SHOWERS

Being in the mood for an afternoon stroll in the sun on a cold and dreary day!

Passing a girl who smells like she's taken a bath in heavy perfume!

Not being able to spend more time with you

Rushing out to see a good movie and finding a line a mile long in front of the theater

Having to cancel plans I've been making for a long time

Anything phony

A loose cap on a salt shaker when I'm using it

Taking my car to a car wash, having it polished and cleaned, and discovering it's going to rain tomorrow anyway!
