Searching

When she smiles her face lights up like a thousand silver moonbeams dancing across the surface of a lake and the touch of her hand is as soft as the gentle brush of the smoothest corn silk across his face.

This is the girl David Cassidy dreams about. This is the girl who will win his heart. The girl with whom he will one day walk down the magical aisle to a life of happiness and fulfillment.

But David has not met her yet. He is still searching for his someone, the person who is beautiful, because of the things she believes in.

Of course, David goes out with many attractive and glamorous ladies: actresses, models, etc. But what he is looking for is much deeper than superficial beauty.

He is looking for LOVE, that commitment between two people that makes giving and taking the same thing. He is looking for that emotional excitement that transforms mere existence into LIVING! And that is not easy to find.

For Love

David knows that it will not be love at first sight. Sure, she will be beautiful, but much of that outward beauty will be a reflection of an inner peace and inner contentment with herself. And David has been around long enough to know that love is not something that you FIND, but is rather something that is MADE by a lot of giving and sharing.

David's girl will be concerned about the world. She will know that there are many problems—pollution, over-population, hunger, disease—and she will want to help do something to make it a better place to live. She will want a better world for David's children!
