the LO down

DAVID CASSIDY—wearing some groovy new dark shades—gave his TV mom SHIRLEY JONES a thrill when he recently showed up at the Bell Records party thrown for SHIRLEY by Bell prez LARRY UTALL. DAVID, SHIRLEY, LARRY and their guests were celebrating the release of SHIRLEY's first single record—on Bell, natch—Ain't Love Easy... Hopeya caught DAVID when he stepped out of his role of "Keith Partridge" and was the featured guest on NBC-TV's special The Bob Hope Show this past October.

Mucho thanx to JOHN and YOKO LENNON for their gracious and spectacular One-to-One Benefit Concerts at Madison Square Garden late last August. Aside from raking in a lot of bread for the establishment of community facilities for the mentally retarded, JOHN and YOKO—and their fellow guest artists the ISLEY BROTHERS, SHA NA NA, STEVIE WONDER, ROBERTA FLACK and RICHARD KILEY—also entertained 15,000 New York City area retarded children free—each accompanied by a special, individual escort! Among the people on hand at the One-to-One Benefit were such celebs as MRS. GEORGE McGOVERN, New York's Mayor JOHN LINDSAY, DICK CAVETT, DUSTIN HOFFMAN, MIKE NICHOLS and WOODY ALLEN.

It was quite a switch for OSMOND-luvvers who went to their sold-out concert in New Orleans last August. Because of the heavy rain, it didn't seem as if the concert would go on at all, but luckily enough when the rain stopped the OSMONDS came rushing out to give their fabulous concert before the rains came back. The rain held off though and, when the OSMONDS finished their terrific performance, on came those heavenly HEYWOODS to give their super fab show! Although this was quite a switch in their usual concert procedure, seems like everybody enjoyed the change.

Super duo SONNY and CHER BONO were named Artists Of The Year by the Music Operators of America—which is a jukebox association! Seems S&C are the most popular artists on jukeboxes 'round the country! Right now they're ridin' high with their latest Kapp single When You Say Love and a solo-in' CHER has just released her newest tune Don't Hide Your Love.

Those two luscious "ladies' men" DAVID ACKLES and AL PACINO have a passel of good news for us. First off, there's DAVID's highly acclaimed "album of the year" American Gothic (on Electra) plus his hit single Oh, California and One Night Stand—and now DAVID is secretly negotiating with a top movie producer to write the music and score for a Broadway show. Meanwhile, keep watching your local newspaper in case your town just happens to be one of the lucky cities DAVID plays during his current in-person swing across the country. As for AL ("Michael" from The Godfather) PACINO—he's just finished shooting the full-length movie Scarecrow for Warner Bros. and will soon begin work on The Godfather Part II. In GFII, AL will again play the role of Michael Corleone, only this time the whole movie will be focused around Michael as The Godfather.
