

Perhaps the greatest tragedy of all in David's life is that he has not yet found his one true love...one special girl who'll make everything right for him!

If you look into David Cassidy's eyes you see sparkle, warmth, friendliness, sincerity and success—unless you look too deep! There you just might find something more, something perhaps rather sad.

For deep in David's eyes is the only place where all the tragedies of his life can be seen—and he has suffered much in his life.

Tragedy can break some people while others are just made stronger—but it always leaves a mark of some kind.

For David life started out fairly well. He had loving parents who were very active in the exciting world of show business. But show business can be a cruel world, too, and can be especially devastating to the marriages of the people involved.

DAVID'S FIRST TRAGEDY

David's first really major tragedy struck at the tender age of five when he discovered his parents were getting divorced. It had obviously been brewing for some time—no one decides overnight to get divorced—but

David was totally unprepared for it and it struck a cruel and harsh blow. It's very difficult for a five-year-old boy to understand that his mother and father don't love each other anymore and don't want to live together anymore.

Particularly difficult to handle was the fact that his father had already found another lady he loved more. David cried just once, when he first heard the news. But from that time on all the hurt and confusion and pain were kept deep inside.

