

DAVID

MARK

DeFRANCOS

RUMOR: How did James Taylor and Carly Simon first meet?

TRUTH: These two terrific and talented people met while performing together at a benefit in Bayonne, N.J.

RUMOR: I love watching "Young Dr. Kildare" on TV—is Mark Jenkins married? What does he do in his spare time?

TRUTH: Mark is married (sorry!). He has a strange mixture of free-time activities: He reads a lot, likes backpacking into the Sierras, builds furniture and gets involved in politics!

RUMOR: My girlfriend said that David Cassidy went to England to give a concert. I say he went for another vacation—who's right?

TRUTH: Sorry to say that you're both wrong! David went to England in September during the Partridge Family hiatus to appear on one of their top television shows "Tops in Pops!" He sang his newest single "Rock Me Baby" and was interviewed!

RUMOR: Did Shirley Jones and Jack Cassidy ever get divorced? My mom said that she heard they were back together. Did they get married over again? What does David think about this?

TRUTH: David's dad, Jack Cassidy and Shirley Jones have been separated since last spring, however, they never filed for divorce. Now they've decided to get together again. David says he's very glad they worked things out!

RUMOR: Did Roger Davis of "Alias Smith and Jones" really star in the old "Dark Shadows" television show? TRUTH: Yes, Roger was a regular on "Dark Shadows" for a few years and he also starred in the movie "House of Dark Shadows"!

RUMOR: I've just loved listening to Chicago ever since they were Chicago Transit Authority! Where can I write them?

TRUTH: They're delighted that you've been a fan over the years! You can write them at: Chicago, 8600 Melrose Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069.

RUMOR: I heard that Peggy Lipton writes songs, is that true?

TRUTH: Yes, it sure is! And she has several people interested in recording them, so you'll be hearing her songs on the radio soon!

RUMOR: I heard one of the Grass Roots designs clothes—which one is it?

TRUTH: One of the new members, Joel Larson, is the clothes manufacturer! He's making fun-to-wear clothes, and the name of his business is "Tallulah"!
