

FANS REVEAL:

"How Do I Love Thee?"

Who loves David Cassidy more than anything or anyone else in the world? YOU do—so who else should be writing words of love to him and who else could tell him exactly how much he's adored? No one but YOU, David's devoted fans should be given the chance to tell David those precious words "I love you." So, read on—you just might find your love letter to David right here in the pages of PF magazine!

Hi David,
How's things in Hollywood? I've never written you before but there's a first time for everything. I thought I would tell you how I feel about you.

I love you very much. You may think this is just some prank letter. But it's not. I do love you. And if someday I meet you, I'll only have one wish and that is that you'll love and cherish me as much as I love and cherish you.
Pam

Dear David,

My name is Bridget Benton and I am twelve years old. I read the book called "The David Cassidy Story" and it was very good. Before I read it I could care less about you, now I think you are really talented and nice. I'm glad you got the role of "Keith."

I played my guitar for a talent show I did good but I kept rolling my tongue round like you.

David,

I really dig you, but if what I read is true, well, knock off one fan. It was by a girl. She wrote a letter to her girlfriend. She said even though you talk about love and honesty, you laugh and make fun of us. I usually believe everything they write but, man, you couldn't DO that to me and all those other girls.

Sure, some of those girls go too far. Because you're their idol, dream guy, hero. Why girls from four to forty dig you.

Please David, I'm hoping and praying it isn't true.
Carla

Dear David,

I like you a lot. I always watch your shows. I wish I could grow up to be an actor like you. How is the weather in Hollywood and does it ever rain? In September I am going into 1st grade. My baby sitter helped me write this.

Dear David,

You are the only boy who I love. But I heard that Susan Dey and you do not get along too good. I must close now.
Love, Alison

Dear David,

I love you very much and I cherish you too. I am at camp Minnowbrook. And having a great time. I have a counselor from Sweden.

Lisa
