

THE GATES OF COLUMBIA RANCH can look like the gates of heaven to some fans—especially if their fave star of Partridge Family drives by & smiles or talks to them!

YIPPEE! THE YANKEE PEDLAR INN is where a lot of the Partridges hang out—especially around the noon-time hour. Keep your eyes & ears alert & you might spot a PF!

If someone were to ask you, "Where do you find a Partridge?" would you know what to answer? If you do know, then tomorrow might be the lucky day—you'll turn your head and be staring right at David Cassidy or Shirley Jones! Wow!

But unless you put your mind to it, the odds that you'll see one of the Partridge Family stars is very, very small. But we've got some hints to help you beat the odds!

EYES RIGHT!

The most important thing to remember is to keep your eyes open at all times! You might pass Susan or Danny in the street and look blankly right through them! You could shuffle along, looking at your feet, and accidentally bump into someone. If you murmur "s'cuse me" and muddle on, you might leave David behind! So, keep those peepers peeled because you never know when it might happen!

As for the right area, Los Angeles and Hollywood would be best. If you don't happen to live around here, your chances are smaller, although David is more likely to breakaway from Southern California (for tours and concerts) than the others, so don't give up!

Each member of the cast is very much different from the others—and very much alike in some ways. Although you might be likely to find two or more of them together even when they're not working, they all have varied interests and hobbies! If you've followed the Partridges, you already know many of those interests. Here are some that we've picked up along the way... and the places you might be likely to see one of them!

A good place to begin is Griffith

Park, a happy habitat for many people. Shirley, David or Danny might easily be found there. It's a big park, though, so here are some clues: Hide behind a bush next to the bridle path, and you might see Shirley or David come cantering past (on horses, of course)! They both love riding, and Griffith Park has some great stables!

A'CAMPING WE WILL GO!

Or, check out the camping sites (the more secluded ones) for David's and Sam's tents. Camping is a favorite pastime for them both, and they just might need a lady chef for the noontime meal chores! (Caution, here: Wear the right clothes for this "hunting trip"—a dress might seem suspicious for a "chance" meeting in the woods!)
