

Dear Al,

Does David like pets very much? Also, please tell David "hello" from me.

Tammy Sadaway
Manitoba, Canada

Dear Tammy,

I should say he does! Ever since I've known David, he's always had pets and loved them all.

Right now he's shopping around town for a new puppy. He's not sure what kind he wants but he's always liked the English Setters (like Kula) or Harlequin Danes. Next time I see David, I'll tell him "hello" from you, Tammy.

Dear Al,

Please excuse me, because I know this must sound like a stupid question but I'd really like to know, just out of curiosity, if David ever wears his socks to sleep?

JoAnn East
Dayton, Ohio

Dear JoAnn,

You must be a mind-reader to ask such a far-out question! The answer is YES! David told me that sometimes he does wear his socks to sleep because many nights his feet get cold! Thanks for your interesting question... I dig it when a question that's hardly ever been asked pops up!

Dear Al,

I noticed in one of the magazines that David was wearing furry shoes. Is that the newest style now, out there in Hollywood, or are they just something he really grooves on? Does he have problems with his feet? What kind of shoes are they and what are they made out of?

Susan Smith
New York, N.Y.

Dear Susan,

No, heavens no! David doesn't have any foot problems. Nor is this the latest in Hollywood shoe fashions. The shoes you're referring to are after-ski boots and they are made out of llama fur. They're really warm as well as comfortable. David's cold-blooded feet appreciate those furry shoes!

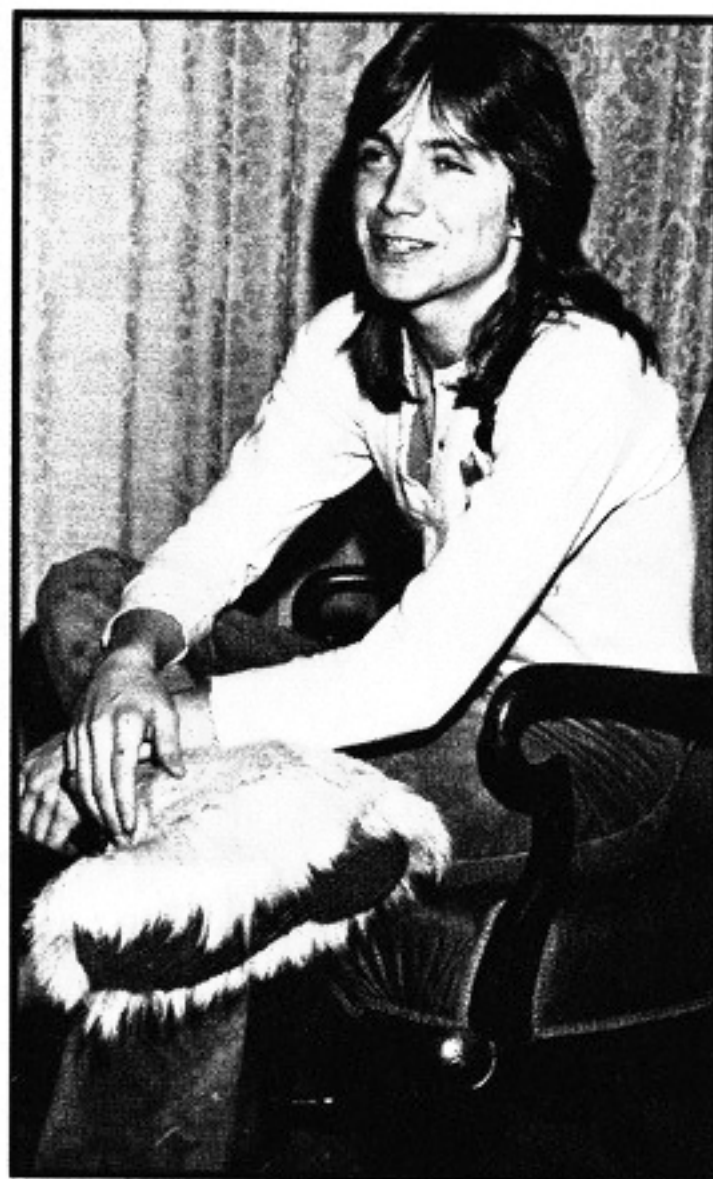

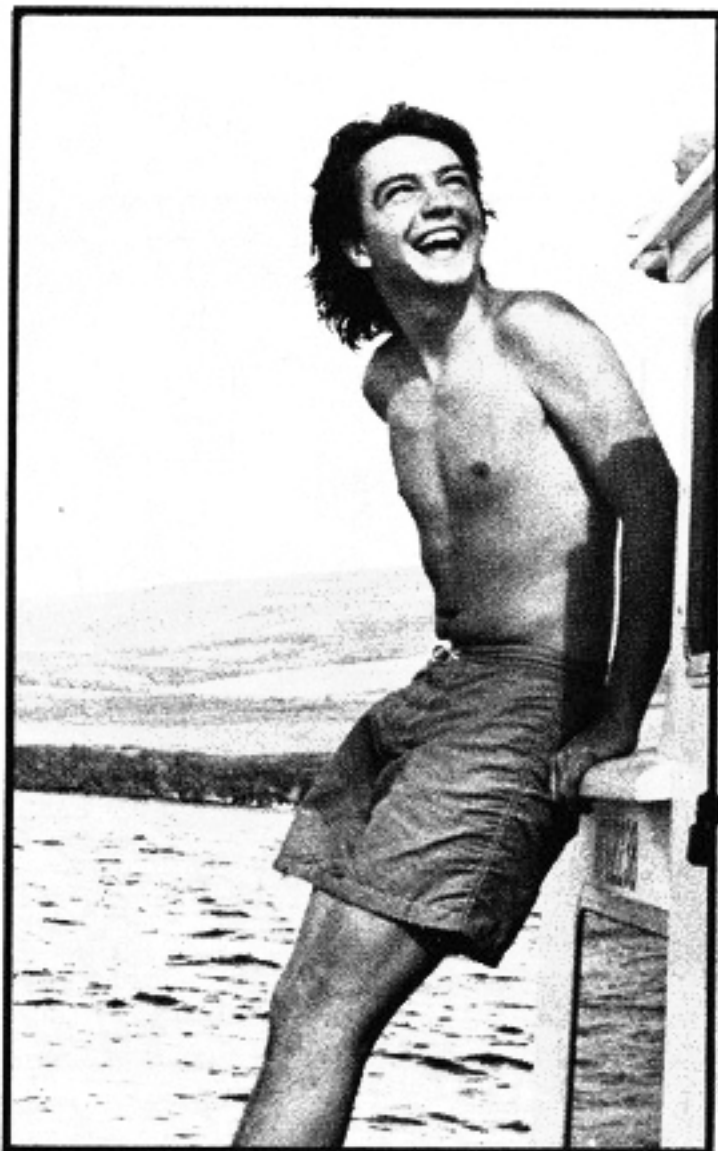

Dear Al,

In the summer when it's warm out, does David ever have his friends over to his house to swim? Also please tell David I love him and I thought he was just great in Portland, Oregon!

Mary Baron
Portland, Oregon

Dear Mary,

I'm glad you enjoyed the concert in Oregon and of course David did also. I liked it too! Did you see me there? I hope you said hi! Whenever David has free time to sit by the pool and relax a bit, he usually likes to have some friends over to enjoy it with him. But then David doesn't have that much free time.

Dear Al,

Does David watch TV very much? If he does, what are some of his favorite shows that he always watches?

With Love,
Laura Shelton
Minneapolis, Minn.

Dear Laura,

When David watches TV it's not very often. It's hard for him to set up any sort of viewing schedule because his work schedule changes so much from morning to night.

However, when he does have a moment, he likes to watch comedies, like the musical variety shows, or a good drama. There are lots of good dramas on TV but the comedy show that he really enjoys watching is "The Sonny and Cher Comedy Hour" on CBS. In other words, he likes to watch TV when he has the time.

Dear Al,

A few months ago I saw a picture of David in a magazine wearing glasses! I didn't know that he needed them at all. Does he really wear glasses or were they just for fun?

Elizabeth Goodlin
Huntington Park, Calif.

Dear Elizabeth

Although David did wear glasses when he was younger, he doesn't need to wear them now.

If the picture was a recent shot of him, they were just being worn for a practical joke.
