needed on the set . . . you too, SUZANNE," he calls up the hill!

We all head back to the set, a little sorry that we can't stay and explore the fabulous set, but talking to DAVID would cheer anybody up! DAVID tells us about some new ideas he has for his next album.

• Love Songs •

"Well, I really like to sing love songs, so naturally, there'll be plenty of them! I also would like to do a song or two like "Ricky's' Song"... I've sung that at a few concerts, and everybody seems to like it... and it's one of my favorites! I haven't written anything specific yet, but the ideas keep piling up in my brain!"

Naturally, we're now all excited about the idea of a new album, especially since we've heard DAVID's explanation! We reach the set, and the three youngest PARTRIDGES are already through the door. DAVID says that he'll meet us inside, but right now, he has to go to his dressing room and change for his next scene.

We're quietly watching the PARTRIDGES film, when the director yells, "CUT," and then calls for the make-up man.

As the make-up man speaks to the director, SHIRLEY JONES walks up behind us, and tells us that the director is having problems shooting this week, because everybody's sunburns are showing up!

• Going to Laugh •

"It's really kind of funny," says SHIRLEY. "I feel sorry for the director, but when he starts getting upset because SUSAN's nose is pink, or because SUZANNE's hair is turning green from all the chlorine in her pool, I sometimes think I'm going to laugh!"

By this time, the make-up man has done his magic, and SUSAN no longer has a pink nose! The director seems happy again, and shooting continues.

The scene they're working on is a very funny one with DAVE MADDEN! DAVE tells one of his jokes and the whole stage breaks up! It's so hard not to laugh... DAVE is so funny. Sometimes they spend twice as much time shooting a scene that they've planned, because whenever DAVE says his lines, everybody laughs. We ask DAVE about this, since we're wondering if he minds having to shoot and re-shoot scenes!

"No, I love it... after all, a little laughter never hurt anyone!"

Well, it looks like it's time to head back home, doesn't it? We'll be back shortly, so don't forget we've got a date right here in the next issue of PARTRIDGE FAMILY MAGAZINE!

DAVID comes out of the studio and wishes us a safe trip home, "Be careful, we wouldn't want anything to happen to our favorite visitors."

So we're off, and you mention that even though you won't be back on the set for awhile, you'll be able to think about DAVID's words every day, and every night... pleasant dreams!
