Q. I think that Partridge Family Magazine is great, and "Partridge Family Secrets" is one of my favorite columns! Out of everybody on the show I find that I really like Dave Madden. Of course, I like David and the others too, but with Dave, I think his fatherly image comes across and really intrigues me. Please tell me a little something about him. Is he nice to know?

A. You'll be pleased to hear that Dave Madden is a very interesting guy, with a zany sense of humor! He was born in Sarnia, Canada on December 15, and stands 6'2" tall. Dave weighs 175 pounds and has light blond hair and blue eyes. He likes photography, writing and sailing, and gets to devote much time to his hobbies since he makes his home on scenic Malibu Beach!

Q. A few months back during the "Partridge" episode about David's home movie, I thought I saw Jan Freeman, David's stand-in, among those in the TV audience. Could that have really been her, or am I imagining things?

A. You're not imagining things at all... that definitely was Jan Freeman! Besides standing-in for David, when she's not needed on the set, Jan also gets to be seen on camera in various "Partridge" episodes. That's just another one of the many nice things about being a TV stand-in!

Q. My girlfriend told me that the Partridge Family recorded "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do." Is she telling the truth? I remember that song from long ago and another recording artist did it. Who was he?
