

eral years now, and you're both my favorite performers. Please tell me how you would describe your relationship with Susan—boyfriend/girlfriend, friend and friend, or brotherly/sisterly? Thanks a bunch, David. I love you!

Fondly,
Howardine Kay Brenner
Allentown, Pa.

Dear Howardine,

What an unusual and pretty name you have—in fact, that's what attracted me to your letter when I saw it on the return address! As I've said before in Partridge Magazine, Susan and I are good friends. In fact, you could even say we're like brother and sister because of the good times we share. It's only natural that people grow close when they're working together on a series, and Susan and I and the rest of the cast are very glad we met!

Dear David,

What do you think of all the sensitivity cards that are out in the stores these days? Do you like to receive them?

Love,
Mary

Dear Mary,

I sure do like receiving them, and I only wish I had enough time to send some out to my fans! Sometimes the sensitivity cards say so much more with their pictures and words that the same feelings can't even be conveyed when you try to write a letter. I think they're one of the nicest things to come along in a long time!

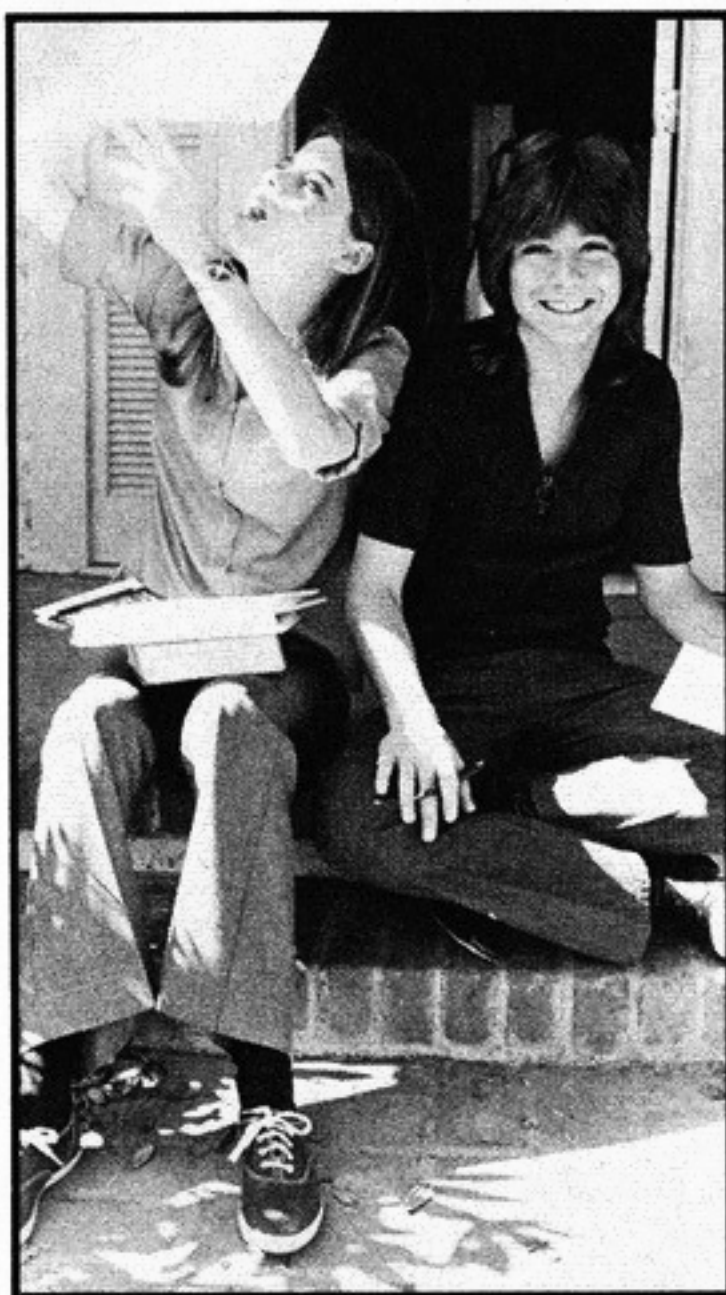

Dear David,

Can you speak any foreign languages? You're my very favorite star!

Amor,
Phyllis

Dear Phyllis,

Thank you for the compliment. Unfortunately, I don't have mastery of any foreign language, but I sure wish I did! I understand a few words in Spanish and French, but it's really not enough to amount to anything! I understood what you meant by "Amor" though—and all I can say is, "amor" to you too! The language of love is understood by everyone—don't you agree?

even a teenager yet, and this boy is old enough to drive a car, vote, and be in the service, not to mention that he's probably been dating for several years. Don't be in a hurry to attract someone older; that's something you can concern yourself with when you're getting old yourself! Just have fun right now with the kids your own age—you're only twelve years old once!

FOR DAVID:

Dear David,

I've been watching you and Susan on the "Partridge Family" for sev-
