

DAVID'S OWN PERSONAL PHOTO ALBUM

"YOU'VE got one, I've got one—everybody's got one! And if they don't—well, they ought to have one!" And just what is our dear David talking about? Why, his very own personal photo album! Some of you 16-ers might not actually keep a month-by-month photo album of yourself, but your mom (or some close relative) probably does. All during David's life—from the moment he was born, through his early childhood in West Orange, New Jersey, his boyhood years in Los Angeles, and right up to the present day—his family has kept a careful and very beautiful, private, personal photo album all about David. Now the time has come for David to share this album with you. So join him from the very beginning of his life—and enjoy David Cassidy's Private Photo Album with him!!

David's birth announcement. His mom chose the name "Bruce" and his father chose the name "David."
