

David, at three, with Donald, a neighbor. David (right) looks like he's making a face at Donald!

Donald's revenge! But it's all in fun—and the doggie is David's Aunt Marion's puppy "Queenie."

At three and a half, David was already in love with girls. Here he is with the two daughters of one of his mom's friends.
