HELLO out there in 16-land!! Thank you once again for your wonderful letters—I love reading all of them and it's very difficult to figure out just which ones to answer in the limited space I have here in my Private Mailbox column. I've tried to pick the questions most often asked or most unusual. If you don't see your question to me answered here—then write me a letter and ask it yourself!!

Dear David,

My friend told me that she has your address—and I just cannot believe it! Somebody else told me that Suzanne "Tracy" Crough was run over by a car. Is that true? Some of the boys in my class say they hate you, which annoys me very much. I love you and The Partridge Family. How is your family?

• Dear Sarah,

Since you didn't tell me what address your girl friend has, I cannot tell you for sure if it's my correct address. As you know, you can write to me at 16. I have a number of other addresses—all of which are listed in 16's All Star Private Address & Phone Book (see page 19). But no one has my home address. I have already had to move twice because well-meaning young fans have found out where I live and have totally disrupted my life. I don't mean to sound selfish, but I simply must
