

Lake City, Utah. Virl and Tommy have made a promise to themselves and to all Osmond fans that if a fan writes in six times, they should get six answers! So keep writing, Debra!

Dear FaVE,

I've heard that Pete Duel is quitting "Alias Smith and Jones!" I hope that's not true!

A Pete Fan
B.C., Canada

Dear Pete Fan,

Don't worry! Pete loves the show and doesn't have any plans whatsoever to leave it! Besides, who could play the role of Hannibal Heyes better than Pete! No one! Right?

Dear FaVE,

I heard that the J-5 wrote "One Bad Apple" for the Osmonds. Is that really true—it sounds a bit far-fetched to me!

Karen McCoy,
a fan

Dear Karen,

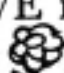

The Jackson Five did not write the song "One Bad Apple!" The J-5 have written some songs, but that one wasn't a J-5 composition! Both groups admire each other's creativity and talent—and who knows? Maybe someday they will be combining their talents on a song! Wouldn't that be great?

Dear FaVE,

Does David really sign all those autographs on the pictures you have of him? My friends say no, but I say that FaVE wouldn't ever have to fake David's signature! Will you answer this in your magazine so my unbelieving friend will see it? Thanks!

Sue Carver
Port Washington, Wisc.

Dear Sue,

Yes, all those signatures you see on David's pictures are really his! We see David in person too often to have to forge or fake his name and notes to you. Hope this convinces your friend that FaVE is honest and true all the way!
