Dear FLIP,

I just bought the November issue of FLIP, and was I shocked to see letters from girls about the Beatles! I'm 14 years old and really love them. In 1964, when the Beatles became known in America, I was seven years old and in the second grade! That's lousy timing on my part. I would love to have been 14 then, so I could understand and love them then as I do now! Phyllis Leh-tinen, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Dear FLIP,

You deserve Best Editors award and Best Magazine award! When I saw the November issue with the article on Chad Everett and his family, I flipped! But the December issue was even better, when I saw that color photo of Chad and then the black and white one, I almost died, not to mention the small ones, too. Please keep on printing this handsome guy, because I just think he's great, and I am sure other fans of his feel the same way. Big Chad Fan, Hewlitt, N.Y.

Dear FLIP,

September 19 is a date I'll never forget! The Jackson 5's "Goin' Back to Indiana" special was on TV! I'm telling you, it was absolutely fantastic! I had never really seen them in concert before, but this was too much! They really lay it on (especially Michael)! Bill Cosby, Tom Smothers, Rosey Grier and the others were great, too. I hope the J-5 do more of that in the future! J-5 Forever, Arcadia, Calif.

Dear FLIP,

I was very lucky to see the Jackson 5 at Milwaukee's Summerfest '71. Man, were they great! We hated to see them leave—people were crying, screaming and fainting. They were too much! Sure, I like Bobby Sherman, David Cassidy and the Osmonds. But they just don't match up to the Jackson 5. So how about giving the Jackson 5 a little more credit? Like, more pictures, front covers, centerfolds, articles, etc. They really do deserve it, and lots more! Mary Schmid, Milwaukee, Wisc.

Dear FLIP,

I doubt you'll print this, but I have to get it off my back. It's about the Osmonds—J-5 controversy. I'm not taking sides, but what difference does it make if the groups do have similarities? (I'm not saying they do.) Both groups have an outasite sound. We should be glad we have both of them to give us twice as much music and listening pleasure. Gale Mitzner, Riverside, Calif.

Dear FLIP,

I love Donny so much. So do most of my friends. I'm saving up enough money to get his album. I wish there was some way I could meet him. You should have more pictures of Donny Osmond in FLIP. Nancy Chapman, Miami, Fla.

Dear FLIP,

If you're 11, 12 or 13, go for Donny;
If you're 19, Wayne or Alan is for you;
Say, you're 18 and you're really dig-
in' Merrill;
To all the rest, remember,
Jay is out there, too!

Jo Christy, Texas City, Texas.

Dear FLIP,

I almost fainted when I saw that the Osmonds were coming to Madison Square Garden in New York in November. My poor Mom, all she's hearing is what am I going to wear and, Help! What am I going to do until November?!! Keep reading FLIP, that's what! Susan Bruno, Lodi, N.J.

Dear FLIP,

I just saw the ABC-TV movie, "The Last Child," and I thought it was the greatest movie I ever saw. It had a good story and great performers. I think Mike Cole was super great! Liz Conklin, Goshen, N.Y.

Dear FLIP,

I just want to say that I think David Cassidy is the most wonderful guy in the whole wide world. I just started collecting pictures of David this summer, and already I have 71 pictures of him on my wall. This is one guy that nobody in show biz could top off, in my eyes. Some boy asked me how I know he's great and why I love him like I do, and I just told him that you can tell by looking into his eyes. They look so innocent. I sure hope someday I will get to see David and give him a great big kiss!! I'm just plain crazy over him. Can ya dig it? Peggy Foster, Mishawaka, Ind.

Dear FLIP,

Today my sister, who is older than me, told me that I am stupid for being so concerned about the stars and singers because, she said, they don't know I exist. So I told her I would prove to her they know I exist, as well as they do millions of other fans my age. What I am trying to prove by writing this letter is that the stars are as concerned about their fans as we are about them. I know that they don't know who I am, where I am or what I look like. But I want each and every one of them to know that I, like millions of other people, are pulling for them each and every day! Linda Rhynes, Ada, Okla.

Dear FLIP,

I just read your December issue of FLIP and I was more than thrilled to see your article, "David in Concert!" Not only did I enjoy the groovy pictures of David, but also the wonderful things about the Performing Arts Center in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. The things you said about it are so true. I saw both David and Bobby Sherman there. I hope they both liked Saratoga and will be sure to come back next summer. Thank you, FLIP, for letting me know you liked Saratoga, too! Happy FLIP-er, Troy, N.Y.

Dear FLIP,

This is to Cathy and Roz of Cata-sauqua, Penna. (Dec. issue). They said that David Cassidy's jeans and T-shirts are better than Bobby Sherman's fantastic wardrobe. And that Bobby dresses so groovy just to please his fans. But I think that they shouldn't begin to compare Bobby to David in dressing, because just in this December issue of FLIP, in the article "David in Concert," anybody could tell that David was dressed to please his fans there! Bobby Fan, Waldorf, Minn.

Dear FLIP,

In last month's issue (Dec.) some guy wrote in and said that he didn't like his girlfriend talking about Donny Osmond. Keep up the good work, girls—they're just jealous! The Gals of America, Durham, N.C.

Dear FLIP,

This is to all you Bobby fans who want to meet him but haven't. Don't
