

give up! After being his fan for ages, I finally met him last July. Since then I've seen him many more times. When you meet him, you'll know it was worth all the waiting and trying. He's one of the nicest people I've ever met! Good luck. Robyn, Hollywood, Calif.

Dear FLIP,

A Raider article . . . no one prints them anymore! On behalf of the thousands of Raider fans, I'd like to thank you very much for printing the article, "The Raiders: Off the 'Reservation' and Running" in your December issue. We'd also like to say "congratulations" to the Raiders on having a number one song in the U.S. with "Indian Reservation." I remember many years ago that Paul said one of his ambitions was to have a number one song, and now he's done it! Sue Ringman, Salem, Oregon.

Dear FLIP,

I just want to thank you for putting more and more about the Osmonds in FLIP. I just love the beautiful centerfold of Donny in the December issue. Your magazine is really great. I think that it's the best one out, and I am going to order a full year's subscription to FLIP. Keep putting more about the Osmonds in FLIP, and I will keep loving your magazine. Karen Weber, Martins Ferry, Ohio.

Dear FLIP,

Thank you so much for the two December "Piggyback" posters of David and Donny. My friend and I think they're great. My room looks like it just came through a paper factory! Our radio station is KDWB in St. Paul, and I listen to the Osmonds all the time! Krista Anderson, St. Paul, Minn.

Dear FLIP,

I'm writing to tell you how much I like your magazine. If it wasn't for you, I would never have known how nice the Grassroots are. I wish you would print more posters and articles on them, especially Dennis Provisor. It's not because I love, love, love them, it's because they're really great! Dennis is nice, wonderful, sweet and ever so handsome, and Rob Grill and Warren Entner are the same. (I'm not so sure about Rickey Coonce, because I never met him.) Please, please put more about them in your magazine. Grassroots Fan, Long Beach, Calif.

Dear FLIP,

I really like the Osmonds a lot, but I don't like any of them as much as I do Donny. He is a very handsome young man and has a very pleasant smile. Thanks a lot for putting him in the centerfold of the December issue. I liked to have FLIP-ped when I opened the magazine to the centerfold and saw him looking at me. Every time I listen to the radio and hear one of the Osmonds' records playing, I just about die! Please put Donny's darling picture in the centerfold more often. Linda Love, Douglasville, Ga.
