

"I find David Cassidy very sexy!"

■ The kids are crazy over David. Everyone knows that. The success of The Partridge Family is mainly due to him. But the kids aren't the only ones who are crazy about David. Their mothers, ranging from age twenty-five to thirty-five, dig him, too—particularly the ones who have been lucky enough to meet him. And while David has said, "I've never fallen in love with an older woman," he's also been quoted as saying: "In the last couple of years I've gotten involved with some older women. You see, I exist in a world of adults, most of whom are older than I."

At twenty-one, he looks sixteen on screen and off. But he doesn't act sixteen off-screen. No way. And even Shirley Jones—his stepmother since August, 1956—recently confided to columnist Earl Wilson, "He's got great sex-appeal—even for me."

She shouldn't have said it. Not out loud—and not in print.

For (continued on page 76)

*Shirley Jones' daring
confession*