

EDITOR'S INSIDE STORY!

by Sharon Lee

DONNY AND I REALLY HOPE you enjoy this Osmond Super Annual issue of Tiger Beat Spectacular! We'd love to know what you think of it!

Just the other day I gave Donny Osmond a call to see how he's doing now that he's recovered from his appendectomy! He said he's A-OK and back to work as usual, rehearsing, singing and dancing.

He wanted me to tell you how much he loved all the cards and notes you sent him to cheer him up while he was recuperating at home in bed!

While we were talking, Jay Osmond picked up an extension line to join the conversation! He wanted to know how things were going on our Osmond Super Annual issue! "Well," I said, "why don't you drop by the office and see for yourself?"

Sure enough, a couple of hours later Donny and Jay surprised me with a visit! All the Osmonds are really concerned about what magazines print about them! They want all their fans to get the truth and that's what Spectacular prints—the truth!

Anyway, the Osmonds hope you like this issue and so do I! Besides personal stories and dozens of pictures on the Osmonds, you'll find David, Bobby and Michael Gray here too!

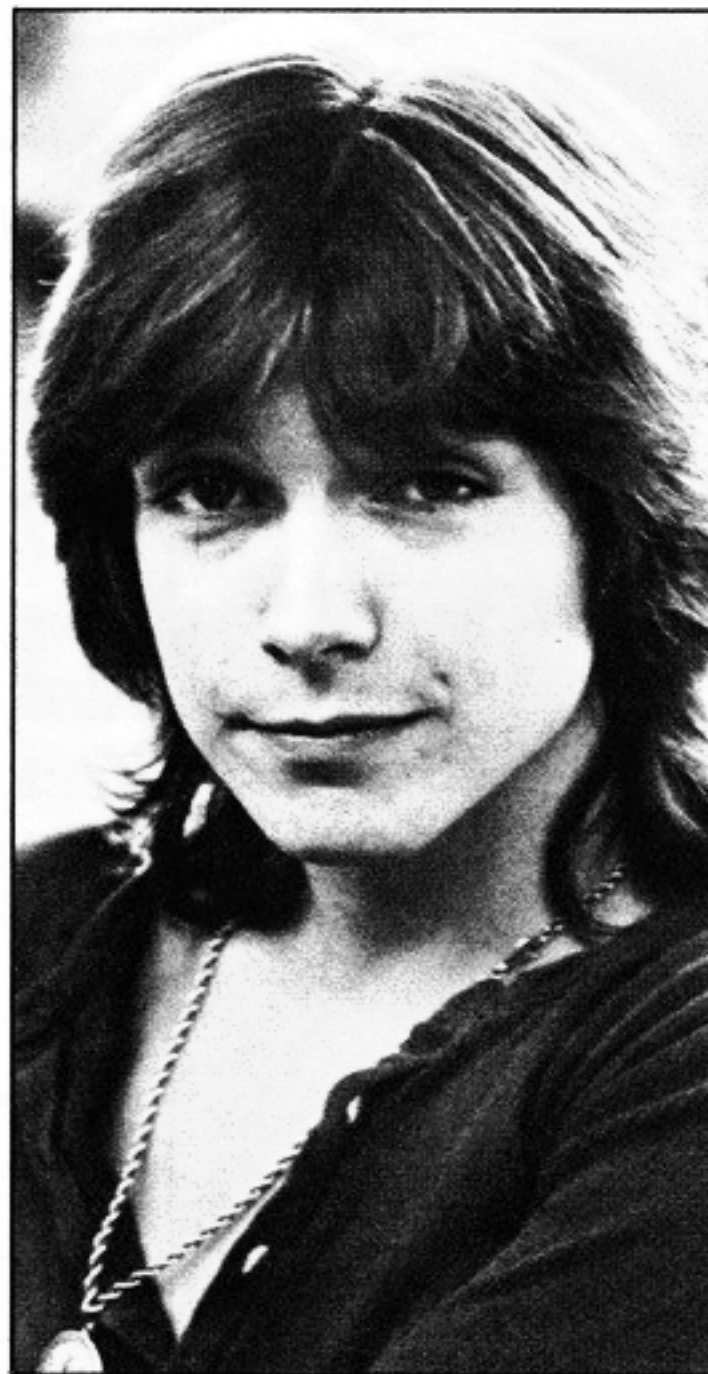

And, I do mean here! It seems like a week doesn't go by without a visit from Michael! I think that ever since last month when he was our guest editor, he's taken an extra special interest in Spectacular! That's nice for both you and me because it means I get to talk to him more often about all the things you want to know! Stick with Spectacular and you'll get all the information on Michael first!

When I stopped by the Partridge Family set last week, David wasn't feeling very well. He thought he was coming down with the flu! He works much too hard and I know it worries you as much as it does me.

His schedule goes something like this: Up at 6:00 a.m. Working on the Partridge set from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Of course, even his free moments on the set are filled with interviews or visiting with guests to the Ranch!

After working on the set he usually has business and recording meetings until around 8:00 p.m. and then he goes to the recording studio until about midnight!

By the time he gets home and looks at tomorrow's script, it's 1:30 a.m.! Besides this, when he's touring on the weekends he doesn't usually get in Monday morning until about 2:00 a.m.! Then, he's still got to be up again by 6:00 a.m.!

WHO DOES DAVID think about? To see who's on his mind, check page 28!

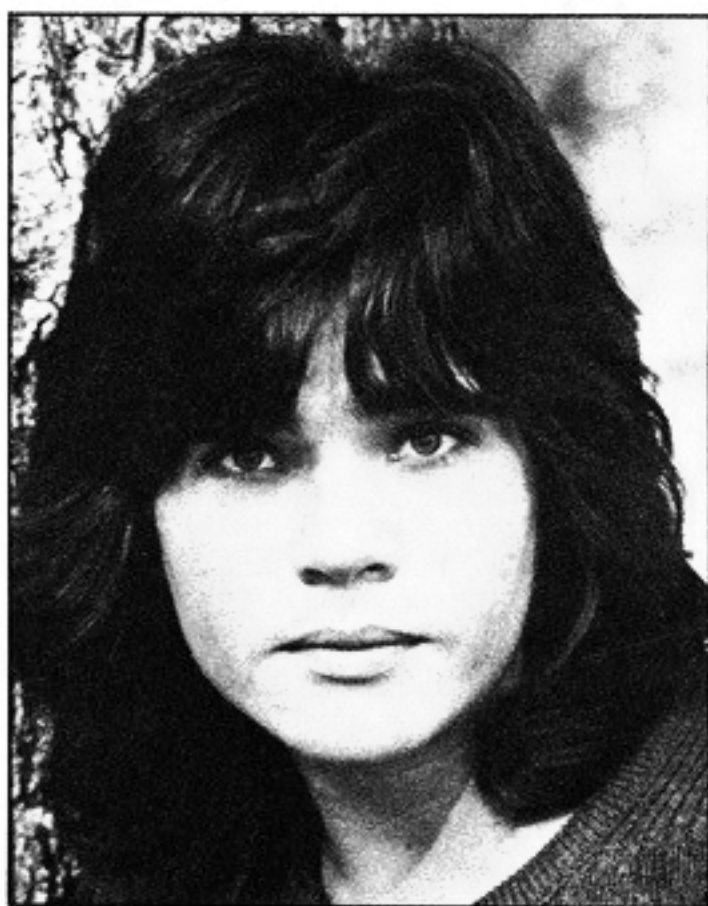

I really don't know how he does it. He's managing on just about 3 to 4 hours of sleep a day! Hopefully, the Partridge set will finish shooting any day now for the season and then he'll get some much needed and much deserved rest!

Anyway, I'll be sure to let you know what's happening so stay tuned to Spectacular. Great news for you! Now you can join David's personal and only authorized Fan Club! Check page 31 to find out how you can be one of the first to be with David!

See you next month,
