

DAVID'S MAGIC MEMORIES

OCTOBER 1970—"I Think I Love You" was on its way to number one and I went to my first autograph party in Riverside, Ca. It was really one of my most exciting moments of all time!

DECEMBER 1970—In November the record made number one and I celebrated by moving into a bigger house in December. Sam Hyman was still my roommate; we dug the new place!

DECEMBER 1970—For my first real vacation in years, Sam and I went to Hawaii! We went scuba diving every day and got lots of sun. It seemed like our week was over too soon!

DECEMBER 1970—Diving in Hawaii was a whole new experience for me. I'd only been diving a few months, but the clear blue water and the tropical fish were amazing to see!

JANUARY 1971—It's was very thrilling for me to film one episode of "The Partridge Family" with Bobby Sherman as the guest star. It was very nice for us to know that Bobby was able to spin his series off from our show!

JANUARY 1971—I began to rehearse for my first in-person concert and was I terrified! I rehearsed for two and a half months and I got more nervous as the day became closer!

MARCH 1971—When I saw this sign as we drove into Seattle from the airport I thought I would faint! At the same time I had a super exhilarated feeling like I had butterflies inside!

MARCH 1971—The moment I stepped on stage and heard YOUR encouraging cheers, every fear I had vanished. I just wanted to pour out my heart to YOU in every song that I sang!

MARCH 1971—Toward the end of the month I attended my first Grammy Awards presentations. Shirley and I were presenters for one award. All in all it was an exciting night!
