

MEET JAN FREEMAN — she's David Cassidy's double and both she and David marvel at how much they look alike! Every day on the "Partridge" set Jan has to be made up exactly like David so that the cameramen can get everything set up before David is needed in the scene. Working so closely together, Jan and David have become good friends. Read her full story in this issue of TIGER BEAT!

THIS IS HOW you'll be seeing Bobby for the next few months. Although he was terribly upset over the cancellation of his series, it was only a matter of days before he was back at work ready to go out on the road to do in-person concerts again!

SUSAN DEY TALKS with her best friend, Jane Joyce on the "Partridge" set. Jane is a stand-in on the set and is sometimes used as an extra, like on the Partridge Christmas show. For more details see Jane's exclusive column "On The Set With The Partridges!"

KEEPING VERY BUSY, all the "Partridge" kids are taking extra musical lessons outside of the regular school work required on the set. Danny is studying the 12-string guitar, Suzanne is learning to play the organ and triangle and Brian says he's keeping up with his drum lessons and likes to practice every chance he gets. Now he's eager to put a set of drums in his dressing room!

PLAYING BEFORE THEIR largest audience ever at Madison Square Garden in New York City, the Osmonds sold out 20,000 seats in five days! Then, they sold out the L.A. Forum which seats 19,000!

MEET RANDY JACKSON — he's the eight-year-old brother of the famous Jacksons. Darling Randy is a great bongo player and those in the know say that within a year or two the group may be called The Jackson Five Plus One. It's not a bad idea and Randy is as eager as can be. He watches everything his brothers do so that when the right time comes, he'll join them with ease!
