by Sharon Lee

ACTRESS EVELYN WARD, David's mom, stops by the office to check her exclusive story! See page 10!

Hello! I've got lots and lots of exciting news for you this month! First of all, David and his roommate Sam Hyman have moved again to a new house! David says it's "a bit more like me" than the one they've been living at!

Stay tuned to TBOPF for an exciting new home shooting! And, just as soon as I've gotten some more information on the house, I'll pass it along to you.

I'd like to thank all the girls who've entered our Susan Dey Look Alike contest—and if you'll turn to page 36 right now you can see for yourself how close some of the entries came!

We're going to be bringing you brand new exciting contests every month, too! This month you've got one last chance to win a phone call from a Partridge! See page 16 for all the details!

JEANNE JAREMA proudly shows off the Partridge script she won!

Coming up next month is a super contest I know you're going to love! YOU can have a chance to win the towel you've seen David use during his concerts! Be sure to get the March issue of this magazine to enter that contest! It goes on sale February 1!

Speaking of concerts, we've got an exciting column for you all about David's tours! It's written by Kim and Dave Ellingson—the couple who sing back up for David's concerts! Kim and Dave are really a great twosome and great talents as well. You probably already know that if you've been to one of David's concerts and heard them!

Kim's just had her own album released and it's really groovy! It's called "Rest On Me!" Kim records under the name of Kim Carnes, for Amos Records! When David heard her album for the first time he said, "Wow, now that's an album!" And, David should know! Pick it up at your record store the next time you've got a chance!

DID YOU WATCH the Partridge show with our smile contest winner? Karen Bowman's the one in the striped shirt to David's left! She was great so if you missed the show, "A Tale of Two Hamsters," see it during re-runs!

Just a note to remind you that our offices have moved! That's right, the entire Laufer Company—and that means Tiger Beat Magazine, FaVE Magazine, Tiger Beat Spectacular and Partridge!

KIM AND DAVE Ellingson write a new column for our magazine about touring with David! See page 27!

And don't forget! David's friend Al Rhodes now has an exclusive column in this magazine where he answers your very, very personal questions about David! Turn to page 51 and know everything now!

David and his friends Sam and Al have got another dog in the family! Well, almost! It seems their brand new next door neighbor (don't forget, they've moved!) has got a dog that has become very attached to David and friends!

The guys christened the pup "Willy" and have practically adopted him! David says he tried to ignore the dog for about 3 days, but then he just couldn't any longer! "He's just such a groovy dog!" David exclaimed.

After the loss of his dog, Sam, whom David loved so much, his friends thought David would never have another pet. Perhaps "Willy" will help him change his mind. After all, a guy and a dog just go together!

See you,
