

What was your reaction to David's in-concert performance?

I'm afraid I was the usual proud, glowing mother. It was, by far, the most exciting experience I've had, watching David - since he first played me the first Portwidy album, before it was released.

DAVID'S MOM SAYS SHE was really amazed in the beginning at all the mail David gets! She loves to help him with it!

What was his grandfather's reaction to the New Jersey concert?

He cried with joy! He was so proud. He wished so, that David's grandmother could have been there.
