

MAKE UP MAGIC!

by Mel Burns, Jr., Partridge Make-Up Artist PART II

Mirror, mirror on the wall, who's the fairest of them all? It could be you, it's easy enough! All you've got to do is take proper care of your complexion and apply the right kind of make-up! So, come along now as the Partridge Family Make-up Artist, Mel Berns, Jr., gives you some make-up hints in the second part of his exclusive story!

PARTRIDGE MAKE-UP ARTIST, MEL BURNS, JR., blots Shirley's face with a tissue before a scene is shot! Mel loves working with the Partridges.

The way to a beautiful complexion starts with a clean face! And I do mean a scrubbed clean face! You should wash your face 3 times a day, at least. There's no such thing as washing it too many times!

There are many products on the market for washing your face, but all you need is soap, water and a clean face cloth or brush! You actually don't need anything else and there's no real difference in the soaps on the market today.

I try to teach the children here on the set the importance of keeping their hands clean. You'd be surprised the number of times you touch your face during the day! It's not really such a big chore, but it's an important one, especially here on the set!

DUSTY PLACE

On a typical set, there isn't a second when you're not in a "contaminated" area! A set is a dusty situation—the air, the props, the stage itself. It's impossible to keep things sparkling clean—it would be an
