

I WONDER IF...

you could spend a summer night helping me count the stars in the sky.

a broken heart can really ever be mended?

you'll be happy with me forever and ever.

I'll do the right things to make you happy. I sure hope so!

total happiness is just within my reach — if so, I'm reaching out to YOU now!

there could ever be a word that could replace LOVE?

holding hands is as nice to you as it is to me!

the girl of my dreams will be tender with my heart.

I'll ever get the chance to travel throughout the whole world — I hope so!
