

I'll really please you. I'll try so hard to make you proud of me all the time.

the day we are finally together will be a day of sunshine or a day of rain. I'd love it either way, just so we're together.

letting a misty gentle rain wash over your face makes you feel contented.

you're feeling a bit lonely tonight like I am because I'm missing you.

the island of Maui is your idea of paradise—it's mine!

the touch of your hand will be as soft as I imagine.

the day will ever come when we can walk side by side.

the sparkle in your eyes is as beautiful as the sparkle in your smile.

being in love sometimes means getting a little bit hurt every so often.

life will still be beautiful to me when I'm about 65!

you fall asleep at night with me on your mind the way I do with you on mine.
