don't need them. Mascara can give you the same look!

If you prefer wearing lipstick to lip gloss, fine, go ahead. You'll have to decide which color is best for you because everyone's lips are different regardless of the tone of their skin. Lipstick looks different on everyone!

On Shirley Jones, I use a soft pink color, but it has to be lightened every so often because on her lips, it tends to go darker after a while.

Keep in mind that one color can kill another. For example, if your lipstick has a tendency to get redder, apply a bit of a yellowish lipcoat under it. The
