room towards her and soon they were dancing, talking, and enjoying everything together.

A SPECIAL GLOW

Finally, the classroom door swung open and David's eyes caught sight of the blue dress and the long blonde hair that he loved so much. Renay smiled when she saw him waiting at the bench for her and her eyes seemed to light up with a special glow.

They stood smiling at each other for a few seconds and then David bent down to pick up his books. Taking Renay's books in his other hand, they started off across the schoolyard for home.

They walked in silence, until they left the campus, and because they were both a little shy with each other still, they didn't mind not talking. Soon however, as they walked along they would begin discussing events of the school day and how their classes were so different since David was in the 7th grade and Renay in the 8th.

HAPPY AND CONTENT

The air was beginning to get a bit chilly as they walked homeward, so David took off his jacket and put it gently over her shoulders. She smiled at him and slipped her fingers into his hand, feeling happy and content as they walked on in silence up to her front porch. "See you tomorrow" said David, as he handed her her books. "Thanks" said Renay, giving him a big smile!

Walking home, David thought about the warm touch of her hand against his and his heart began to flutter. He didn't mind the chilly air so much, for he felt warm and happy inside thinking about Renay.

The months passed by and their school days were full of fun and happy moments together. Lunch time would find them together side by side on the bench or behind one another in the cafeteria line. Sometimes she'd bring him a special treat
