

David's Quiet Days &...

WHO'S THIS sweet and smiling young man?! Why, it's David Bruce Cassidy—known to millions as "Keith Partridge" of ABC's The Partridge Family! Believe it or not, busy David has finally got himself a quiet day at home. For him it's an unexpected pleasure—and for you it's an open invitation to join your favorite star at home!!

David disproves the ancient adage that most boys don't even know how to boil water. "See," he says, "there it is—whoops, or rather was!" Looks like David let all the water in his tea kettle boil away. But it's O.K., cos . . .

. . . There is always plenty of fresh yogurt, wheat germ and whole grain bread in the fridge. And if you don't like health foods—well, you'd better get used to them, cos that's all David eats! In the day-time, that is.

What's for dessert on a quiet day at David Cassidy's house? A great big glass of apple juice, that's what! But if you find David's quiet days just a wee bit dull—well, fear not—cos at night David Cassidy is quite a different fellow!!
