

DAVID ON TOUR!

FLIP'S PHOTOGRAPHER
PETER BORSARI
TAKES YOU ALONG!

Another week of "Partridge Family" filming has finished and David can look forward to a long, relaxing weekend at home, right? Wrong! It seems that the cameras have barely stopped turning before David and his other "family"—the musicians and road managers from his weekly mini-concert tour—are racing for the airport, to head for the distant cities where David will give his Saturday and Sunday concerts.

By now most of you have either seen or read about what a David Cassidy concert is like, and you know all about the excitement of that magic moment when David, in his beautiful white costume, runs on the stage and begins to sing. But, except for an occasional glimpse

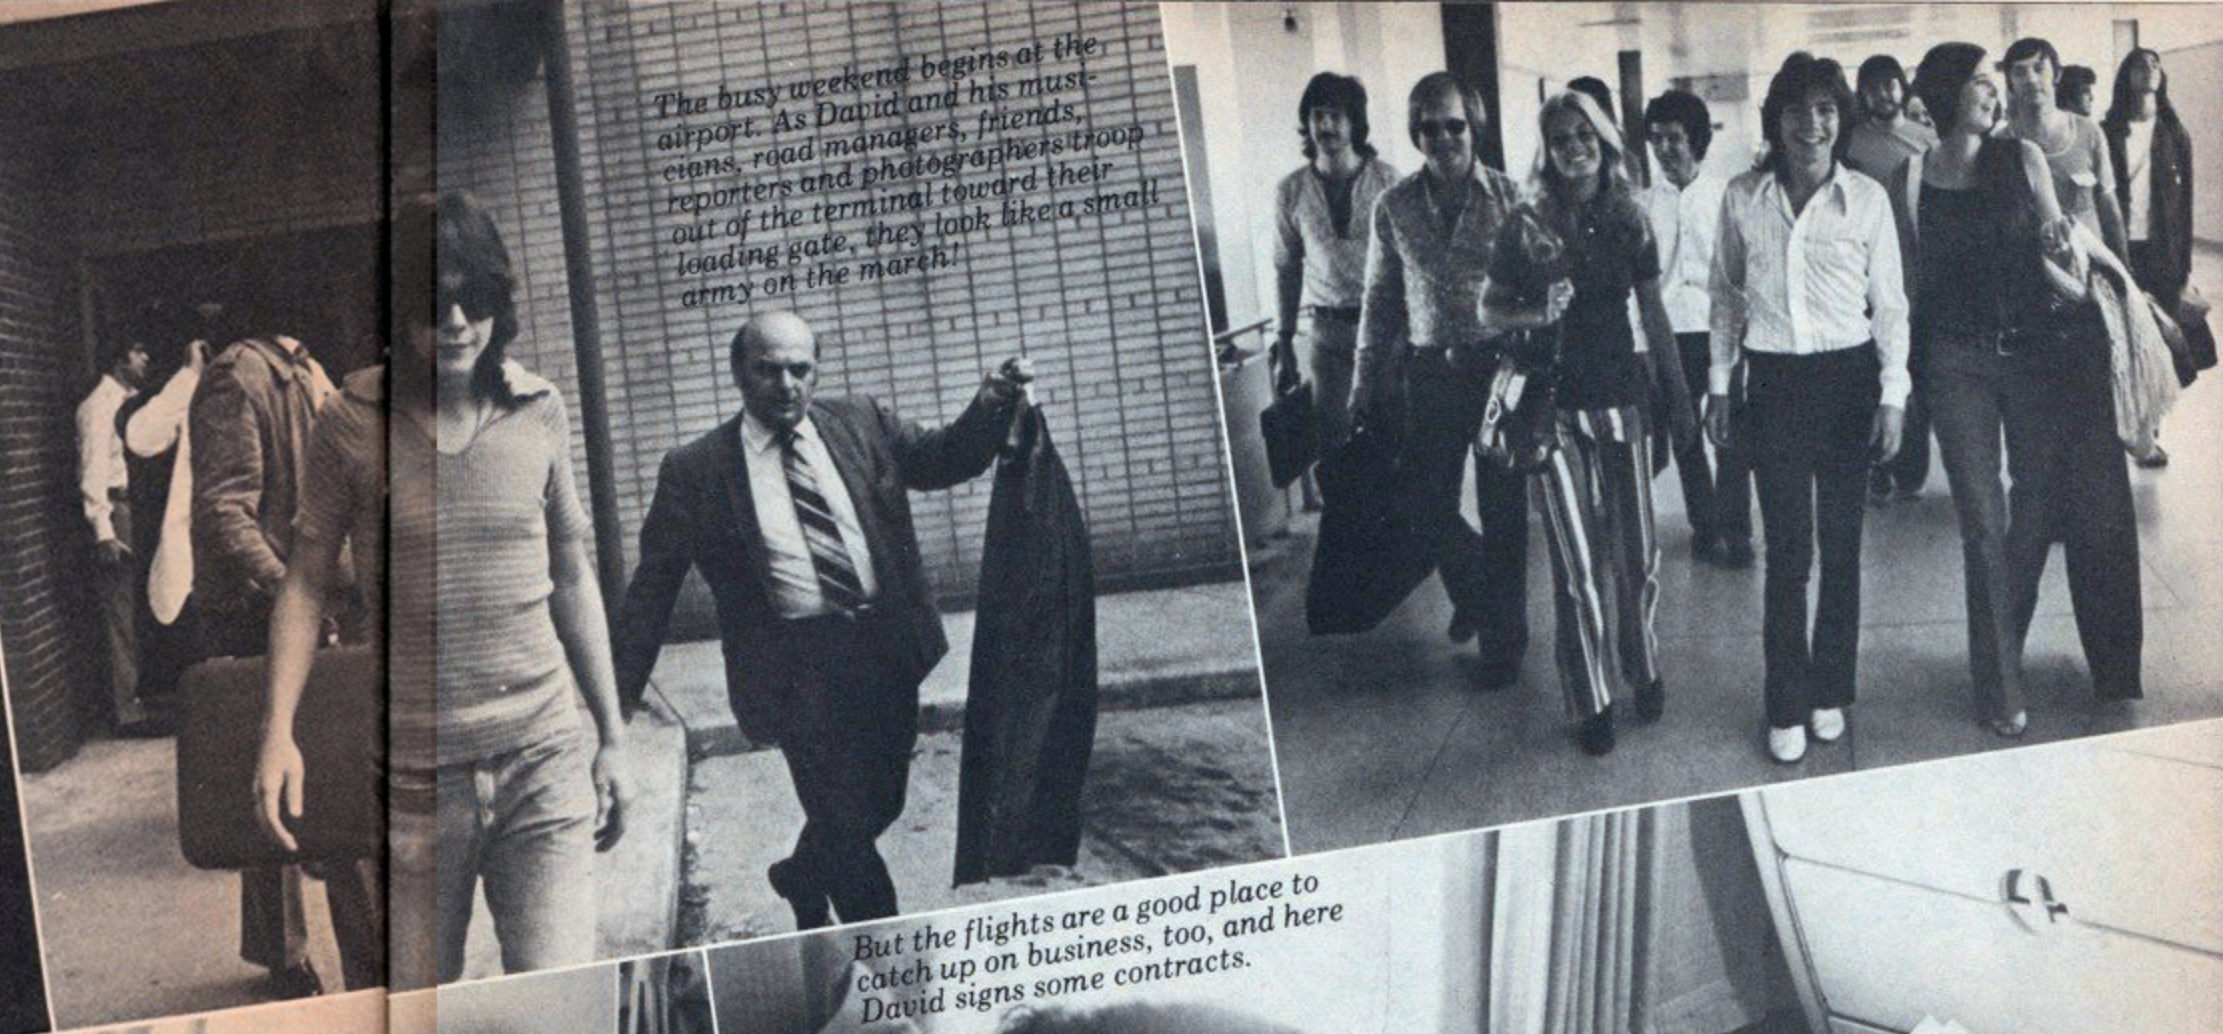

The plane flights are the most boring part of the weekend, but David and his roommates Sam Hyman and Steve Ross, often liven things up with their clowning.

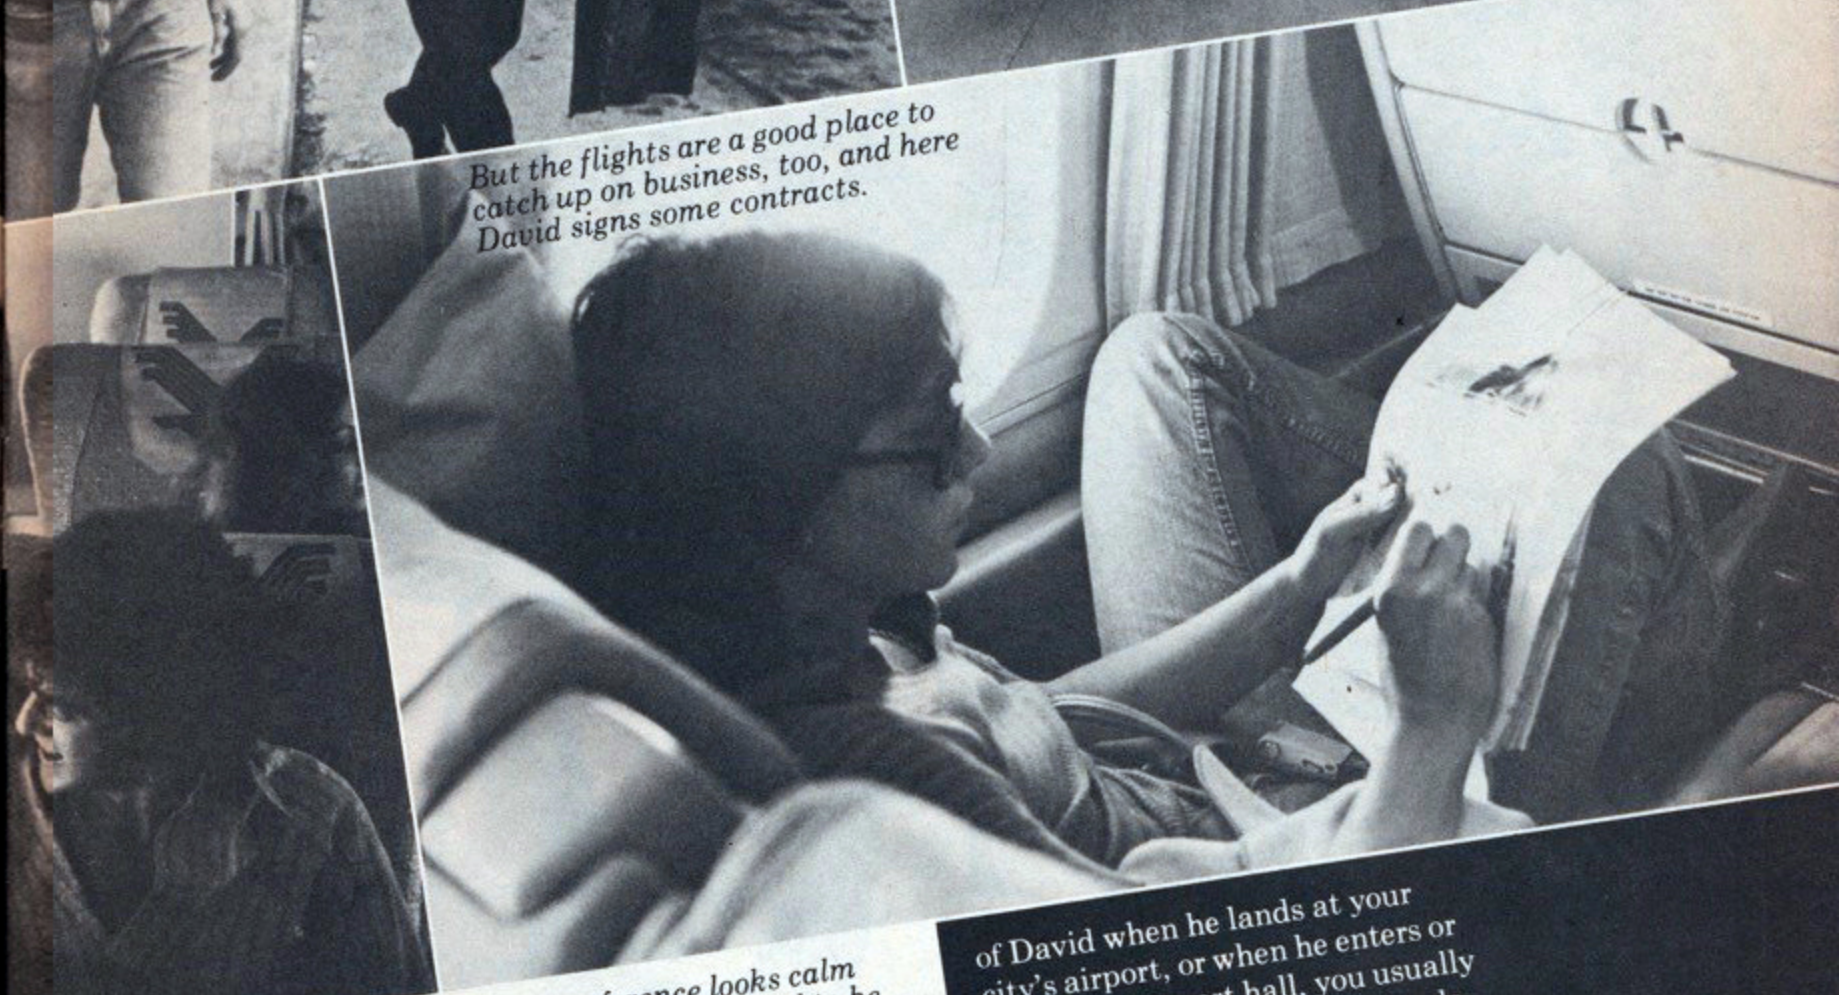

The local radio stations have told their listeners of David's arrival, because he's scheduled to give a press conference at the airport. So here's the happy welcoming committee!

The busy weekend begins at the airport. As David and his musicians, road managers, friends, reporters and photographers troop out of the terminal toward their loading gate, they look like a small army on the march!

But the flights are a good place to catch up on business, too, and here David signs some contracts.

The press conference looks calm enough, but it's already had to be moved into a private room, because David's fans got too enthusiastic.

of David when he lands at your city's airport, or when he enters or leaves the concert hall, you usually don't get to see how David spends all those weekend hours when he's not actually performing.

So now David invites you along on one of his hectic two-day concert trips and shows you what it's really like behind the scenes! Hope you've got plenty of energy to keep up the busy pace!
