

Red-haired and freckled Danny Bonaduce looks like he's all set to go. The big question is where?

David Cassidy and Susan Dey talk over a scene the two of them are about to do. They sure look busy.

When she isn't needed on the set, Suzanne Crough usually heads for the coffee wagon to grab a quick snack.

Brian, Danny and Suzanne are about to have a fast game of volleyball with Susan Neher of "Getting Together."

Shirley Jones takes some time to relax in her comfortable director's chair. This is a rare moment for her.

After a quick change in his private trailer, David's ready to face the cameras for his next scene.

