WASTED NO TIME

Dear Editor:

I discovered TEEN PIN-UPS while visiting my friend's house and I almost flipped when I saw those groovy color pin-ups of David Cassidy, Bobby Sherman, The Osmond Brothers and Barry Williams. In fact, I went right to the store to buy my own copy and I've been buying TEEN PIN-UPS ever since. Keep up the good work.

CAN'T GET ENOUGH

Dear Editor:

I read your magazine all the time and I think it's just fantastic! But I have one small request. Would you please put more of Bobby Sherman in your book? He's the greatest ever and I just can't get enough of him!

Cathy Williams
Silver City, Miss.

ALMOST FAINTED

Dear Editor:

When I opened the last issue of TEEN PIN-UPS (October), I almost fainted. That picture of David Holmes was really super and he certainly seems like a very special person. Please, please tell me where I can write to him!

Scherry Branner

EDITOR'S NOTE: We aim to please, Scherry. You can find David's mailing address

(and all your other favorites', too) right in the "Life Stories" section of this issue!

SATISFIED

Dear Editor:

After reading your magazine for the first time, I think it's really great. In the future, I hope you continue to print more about The Osmonds, especially little Jimmy. I also was super-satisfied with the pin-ups in your book and I want to thank you for all the happiness you have given to fans!

Diane Carruth
Buchanan Dam, Tex.

AN ADMIRER

Dear Editor:

I think TEEN PIN-UPS is sensational—especially when it has both a color pin-up and story on Susan Dey, my favorite star. She's really fabulous and though I've never met her in person, I hope to some day. So keep up the good work and I'll keep dreaming!

UNDERSTANDING

Dear Editor:

I have recently begun reading your magazine and at first I was puzzled to see girls flipping over David Cassidy. Now I know why because "The Partridge Family" has finally come to New Zealand!

Linda S.
Dunedin, New Zealand

ALWAYS ENOUGH ROOM

Dear Editor:

Your magazine is just—WOW! But I wish you'd have lots more on the one-and-only Donny Osmond because he's my one-and-only. My bedroom wall is just filled with groovy pictures of him and I stare at them for hours. So please print a big pin-up of him and you can be sure I'll find some place to hang it.

A RAVING REQUEST

Dear Editor:

Thanks for putting out a super great magazine of the super stars—but there are still two stars missing I adore. Please print more pictures of, and stories about, Lee Majors and Elvis Presley. I and many others think they belong on the teen scene!

B.E.
Joplin, Mo.

BIG SPENDER

Dear Editor:

I really dig TEEN PIN-UPS, especially those terrific pictures of Maureen McCormick. If you have her as a centerfold, I'll buy at least fifty copies of that issue!

A SUGGESTION

Dear Editor:

I never miss a single issue of your magazine and I want to congratulate you on the great job you're doing. Still, I'd like to offer one small suggestion. Do you think you could print more on The Jackson Five? They're really outasite!

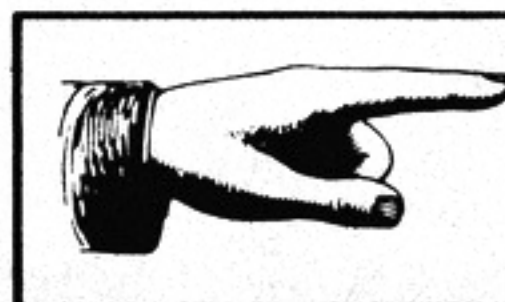

Sharon Broadnax
Moss Point, Miss.

GROOVY PICTURES

Dear Editor:

I'm so happy that you put groovy colored pictures in your magazine. I collect all the latest pin-ups of beautiful Bobby, adorable Donny and darling David and hang them on my wall. Since I have a top bunk, I always look straight at them before I go to sleep!
