

A Hollywood Model tells you how she was able to: add four big inches of bustline beauty in four short weeks

by EVA LOUISE

There I was—a pretty face, lovely hair, beautiful legs, curvy hips, and slim waist. I wanted so to be a successful model—to see my picture in the magazines.

There was just one thing more I needed. A few more full inches in the bustline. If only my 34A was a 38C, dozens of photographers would be after me instead of me tramping around from agency to agency and waiting, waiting, waiting—always waiting.

Well, I really was lucky. At one of the agencies, I met a model I had seen in lots of magazines. She looked so nice, kind of sympathetic that, over a cup of coffee, I told her about my problem. She confessed that a few years back she had been in just my situation, and then she told me what to do.

A few short weeks later, I was a "new woman". Well, not really new. I was the same Eva, but with the addition of just enough to attract those dazzled glances of admiration, I needed for my career. I had gained 4 full-blooming luscious inches where I wanted it most. Now, not a single eye, male or female, passed me by without stopping. Soon I saw myself in photographs everywhere. I was popular, I was successful, I was really happy!

Well, now I am retired to my little home with my husband and kids and I'm still proud of the way I look and the way men look at me. I thought I should share the knowledge given me by that friendly model with girls who want and need more ample inches in the bustline.

And it really is so easy. A few short minutes a day following the simple instructions and using the almost magical "Femfuller" and a larger, fuller more eye-catching femininity can be yours!

Of course, how much and how quickly you can add inches depends on individual factors of build, muscles, heredity, etc. You may not do as well as I did or you may even do better quickly achieving the bosom you desire.

But, this I promise you: Send for your "Femfuller" and complete easy diagrammed instructions. Follow the directions — only a few minutes a day will do — for 4 weeks. Then look at yourself in the mirror. If you don't gasp with astonishment at the new, more beautiful you, if you aren't really, truly happy that you read this, then just return "Femfuller" to me and, on request, I'll send you back what you paid without asking a single question. Now, isn't that fair? And it only costs $3.95 postpaid for everything, shipped to you in a plain package. Just send $3.95 to the address below and I'll know what you want (sorry no c.o.d.'s.) ## SHIRLEY

If you think Shirley keeps up a frantic pace as Mrs. Partridge, you'd be astounded to see her in action at home. She wants to make sure her husband Jack and her three sons, Shaun, Patrick and Ryan, receive plenty of tender loving care. And that keeps her on the go.

"nothing please me more than knowing my family is really happy," Shirley exclaims. "That's why I enjoy my household chores. I bake, sew and clean because I'm really doing it for them. When they're smiling, I am, too."

The Cassidy clan on the other hand, worries that Shirley may be working too hard. They often insist that she just sit back and relax once in awhile. Where does she choose to do that? Well, since Shaun and Patrick are members of Little League baseball team, it's no surprise that her favorite place to relax is at the ball park. But Shirley's not one to do anything half way. In just a short time she's moved up in rank from observer to participant.

"I enjoyed watching my sons play so much that I decided to get out on the field, too. Now I play second base for a softball team known as The Daisies," Shirley says proudly.

Strange as it may seem, nobody in the Cassidy clan is ever surprised when she scores a home run—and with good reason. She's always held the position of most valuable player on any team, especially the home one.

go to great lengths for his privacy. A few months ago, when he learned that his home address had been leaked out, he secretly moved to a new house with the help of a few friends and a rented truck.

"And I'll move again if I have to," he confesses. "I really feel strongly about keeping some things private."

David doesn't particularly like living in Los Angeles. He loves to travel and see new places and spend time out in the country. But he doesn't have very much time for that anymore, either. This is another price he has to pay for his stardom.

"I have to admit that I've had lots of opportunities to travel because of my work," he says, "and it's been great. But there's still so much pressure when you're on a concert tour. You visit a city or a small town and you can't really see the people and the places the way you want to."

Though it might seem to you that David's not too happy with all the changes stardom has caused in his life, there are a lot of other things that have
