LOYAL FANS

This letter is directed to the people who sign their letters "Ex-Bobby fans." In my opinion this means you weren't really fans in the first place. If you were, you wouldn't have deserted him when someone new came along. Think of how hard he works just to make you happy, and what do you do for him in return? You just forget about him, and do you think this is fair? In another year he will probably be in the same position as he was awhile ago, and will you desert him then, too? You should first answer this question honestly to yourself—do you think you really deserve to have Bobby's love?

GENERATION GAP

My uncle and I were talking and he said he couldn't understand what I saw in David Cassidy. So I told him I thought he was nice and that his dimples are darling, and he said he still didn't understand!

BEST OF ALL

If you combine Donny's silky hair, Jay's penetrating eyes, Merrill's great voice, Wayne's beautiful build and Alan's cool looks, you'll have the perfect Osmond, not to mention how great and wonderful they already are!

OUCH!

TORTURE is knowing that David Cassidy will soon be playing a concert only 95 miles from your house and not having any transportation to get there. Believe me, if I can find someone to hitchhike with—I WILL!

LOVES THAT HAIR

In a recent issue of your magazine there was a picture of Peggy Lipton with her hair fixed in a new, curly style. I love her hair that way, don't you?

UP WITH THE J-5!

I am a member of the Jackson Five Fan Club, and I think all the information you run on them is marvelous. You have such beautiful posters too! Thanks so much for everything!

Peace & love,
Kenneth J.

SAM'S GREAT TOO!

I just finished reading Sam Hyman's column "Living With David," and he's got the best sense of humor I've ever heard! He had me laughing all day! I make reference to his statement about not being able to use meat in a milkshake—"You could use hamburger, but it would look like the milkshake had the measles!" Keep up the excellent work, and I'm going to be subscribing soon!

David always,
Dana M.

TRY TO UNDERSTAND

I read the story in your October issue by Bobby called "Must I Live Behind Locked Gates?" which is the reason I'm writing this letter. Bobby's fans must understand that he isn't trying to lock them out, he's only trying to lock his dogs in! I know what it's like to lose a pet when a careless person leaves a gate open, so I hope Bobby's intentions aren't misunderstood. He loves his fans, but he loves his dogs too!
