

PARTRIDGE FAN CLUB COLUMN

continued from page 68

Brian Forster told me that he wanted to go camping, but he had to stay in the vicinity because, "The three of us, (Danny, Brian and Suzanne) have to keep going to school. School is okay, but I'd rather take the vacation."

"I'm going to sleep for two weeks!" was Susan Dey's reply.

Dear Cecelia,

Can two people join the Fan Club at the same time? My friend and I always do everything together, and we want to join the Fan Club together too. I hope so.

Thank you,
Marlene Jorne

Dear Marlene,

There is no reason why you and your friend can't join together. We hope we will be hearing from you soon.

Dear Cecelia,

I live near the studio, and I see your mother go out for lunch with the other mothers, and sometimes the younger Partridges. But I never see Danny with them. I really like Danny the best, and

I always look for him at one o'clock, but he never shows up. Does he ALWAYS stay on the set during lunch?

Thanks,
Judy Shoder

Dear Judy,

No, he doesn't always stay on the set, but I'll have to admit that he stays on the set most of the time. He explained it to me, "I only get an hour or an hour and a half, and I'd rather just get a hamburger from the catering truck, and spend the rest of the time riding my bike. If I went out to lunch, I wouldn't get back in time to ride around."

Dear Cecelia,

Does David keep the gifts his fans send him? I made him a candle, and I am wondering if he'll keep it if I send it to him.

Peace and thanks,
Karen Browne

Dear Karen,

David appreciates and keeps all his gifts. He especially likes the gifts fans make themselves!
