They close off the room so it's really dark, then hang pillows and such from the ceiling that can be dropped on people's heads and little scary tricks like that to make you leave the room screaming! I only got to hear about it, though, 'cause no one is allowed to go through it until Halloween night! As I was about to leave, DONNY was trying to get ALAN to drive to the store for more freak masks!

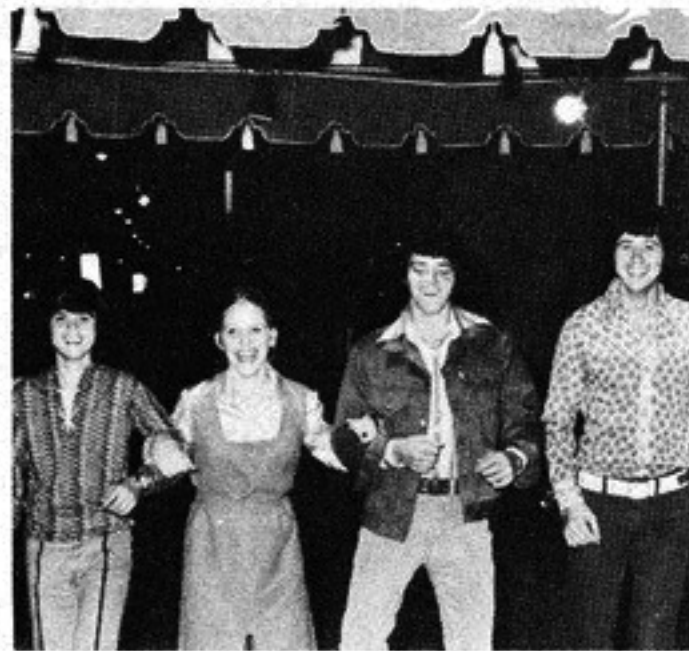

Would you believe Donny Osmond?

Out on the "Partridge Family" set the other day, I was waiting to talk to DAVID, who was busy filming a scene when SHIRLEY JONES arrived for work. I noticed her right away because of her stunning outfit—navy blue suede knee-high boots and a matching navy blue suede coat with top stitching, and a matching blue hat. But then, she took off the coat and the men on the set really flipped! She was wearing a hot pink hot pants outfit and did she look great! It's hard to believe sometimes that she's the mother of three growing boys and plays a mother of two teenagers on TV.

74 Shirley—a super dresser!

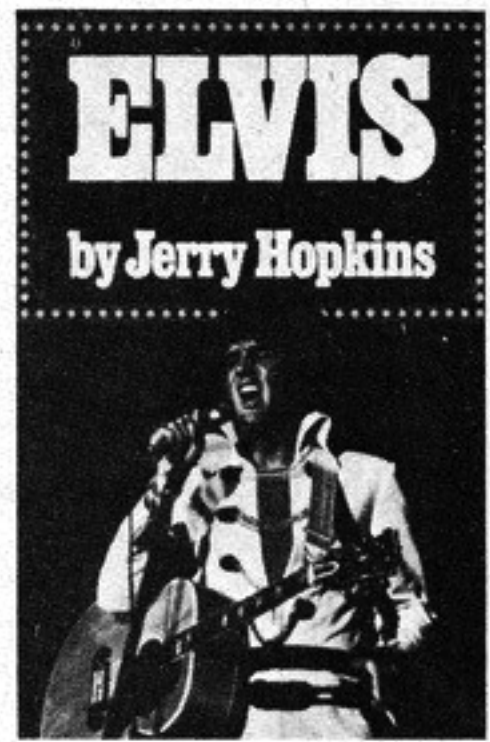

Our contest winner & the Osmonds!

We couldn't help but giggle at that Brand X Magazine from New York that rambled on and on about how our "Be Adopted By The Osmond Contest" wasn't authorized by THE OSMONDS! Can you imagine THE OSMONDS spending a week with our Contest Winner, PAM TURNER, if the contest wasn't authorized by them? Silly, isn't it. Guess it was just their way to "get back at us" when they realized how much more exciting our contest was than there's! If those pictures in last month's issue of PAM with the entire OSMOND family—doing everything from horseback riding to dinners at Hollywood's most famous restaurants to attending their recording sessions and chatting with their grandmothers—don't prove that THE OSMONDS eagerly took part in our contest, well, nothing will. By the way, we have another incredible OSMOND contest coming up in next month's issue, fully approved by the OSMOND family, and waiting for you to enter! So, get your copy early!

Alan kisses Pam goodbye at airport.

If you can't afford this book yourself, ask for it for Christmas! It's "Elvis" an unauthorized biography (which means it tells it like it is, not like a star wants it told!) by JERRY HOPKINS. JERRY'S a friend of mine and a fine writer. You'll discover things about ELVIS you never knew before, but more you'll be able to see what it was like to be a teenager in the 1950's. I really hope you won't pass up this groovy, revealing experience!
