

MAKE UP MAGIC!

by Mel Berns, Jr., Partridge Make-Up Artist PART I

When the Partridge stars work before the camera, they have to wear special make-up. Ever wonder why? Now You can find out as the Partridge Family's Make Up Artist, Mel Berns, Jr., lets you in on it all and solves some of "your" beauty problems, too!

MEL BERNS, JR., MAKE UP ARTIST for all the stars of "The Partridge Family," says that working with such a group of wonderful people isn't really like working at all! The Partridge set is like a home away from home!

So, you've got oily skin have you? Or, lips that change the color of your lip gloss to red after you've put it on? What about complexion problems? Is your skin too red or much too fair? Do eyelashes fade away into nothingness?

If problems like this have really got you down in the dumps, and you're feeling all alone in the world—don't worry! Even stars like Susan Dey and David Cassidy have problems like yours! But, with a little work and some make-up tricks, you can solve them just as easily as they did!

It seems like I've always been interested in theatrical make-up. Maybe it's because my dad was a make-up artist and as a little kid I was always hanging around the studios
