Q. When the Partridge Family goes on location to shoot, does everybody have to bring their own lunches and stuff?

A. No. Ordinarily, when the Partridges film at Columbia Ranch or at Screen Gems they provide their own lunches. They can bring something or buy food from the lunch trucks that come around several times a day, or they can go off the lot to one of the local restaurants such as Yankee Pedlar, Copper Penny or Sorrentinos. However, when filming is done on location, Screen Gems provides the entire cast and crew with a catered hot lunch. The Partridges mostly film at Columbia Ranch, though, so this doesn't happen very often!

Q. I know that Bobby Sherman's "Getting Together" show films right next door to the Partridges at Columbia Ranch. Do the "Getting Together" stars ever drop by the Partridge set?

A. They certainly do. In fact, Wes Stern drops in when he's least expected! Like right in the middle of rehearsals! Wes is such a great guy, all the Partridges look forward to his visits!
