

SPOTLIGHT

Welcome to your very own page, girls. There's something for every "DIANA" reader in SPOTLIGHT, so get busy and send in your letters and ideas to SPOTLIGHT, c/o "DIANA", 18a Hollingsworth Street, London N7 8SA. Who knows, you could be a PRIZEWINNER.

SMALL HELPINGS

Please put in some pin-ups of footballers like Georgie Best or Peter Marinello.

A lot of girls like football, you know, so don't forget about us, will you?

Gillian Summers, Leeds.

HELP!

I'm always giving the kettle a drink of milk and plugging in the cat!

Lesley Oliver, Gosport.

What a purrr-fect nuisance, Lesley! Any more zany sayings, Spotlighters?

One stamp-licker offering her services to 'Diana'.

Licks a dozen stamps a minute and would accept 3p pay to buy her copy of 'Diana' each week!

Joan Butterworth, London.

I think it would be a good idea if readers sent in a top ten of their favourite records.

What about it, Mr Ed?

I think it would be very interesting to see what everyone chose to put down.

Wendy Fair, Renfrew.

Well, Spotlighters, let's hear from you. Send in YOUR personal top ten of hit records.

PROBLEM CORNER

I hope you don't think that this is a silly problem.

I'd like to be a nurse when I leave school but I had an argument with a friend of mine who said I'd have to keep my nails very short—I have quite long nails and I enjoy wearing nail varnish at week-ends.

Is this true, and if so, why?

Kathy Glover, Bournemouth.

Nurses have to keep their nails short, Kathy, otherwise they might scratch patients, especially when helping to lift them up.

Short nails are more hygienic, too, as they are easy to keep clean.

But don't despair! Short nails look just as attractive, if they are well manicured and you could always wear nail-varnish when you were off-duty.

If YOU have a problem, write to: Problem Corner, Spotlight, c/o 'Diana', 18a Hollingsworth Street, London N7 8SA.

FLAT CAT says

Here I am, Spotlighters, back from my hols! I'm having a well-earned rest this week—but I hope you'll get busy and enter our super pop colour competition! See you next week!

BEAUTY SPOT

Have you ever taken part in a beauty contest or a talent competition—or even done any modelling? If so, write and tell us about it, and send a photo, too!

J. Macdonald of Sunderland—who is at the far right of the photo—was third in this beauty competition at Butlin's holiday camp.

POCKET PIN-UP

This week's pocket pin-up is of that good-looking guy, ROBIN STEWART.

Cut it out and slip it into your wallet—or just carry it around in your blazer pocket.

Look out for another pocket pin-up NEXT WEEK.

SWEET 'N' SOUR

Here's something for you to think about!

In a lifetime of about 70 years, we spend an average of six years eating 20 tons of bread, 18 tons of potatoes, 30,000 eggs and 24 tons of vegetables and fruit!

We spend about eight years watching television and lazing about and we sleep for 23 years.

We look in a mirror for about 90 days, chat for four and a half years and spend a year talking on the phone.

PHEW!

C. Roberts, Doncaster.

Up-to-Date-Kate is a great story—she wears super, modern clothes.

But look at her feet—they're much too big!

Why don't you ask your artist to draw them a bit smaller?

I'm sure it would change Kate's whole appearance.

Deirdre Finnan, Dublin.

At school recently we had a craze on pop stars.

In our class not many girls thought they liked 'Diana'.

Imagine their surprise when they found that 'Diana' publishes some of the best pin-ups!

You now have more 'Diana' fans so keep up the good work, please!

Amanda Thomas, Liverpool.

I think 'Diana' is of a most satisfactory standard.

I am very impressed with the way you publish both insults and compliments.

But I am a little doubtful, however, about the letters published—I must admit I think you make them up.

Please prove me wrong by printing this letter.

S. Robertson, Flitwick.

An exciting competition for you to enter!

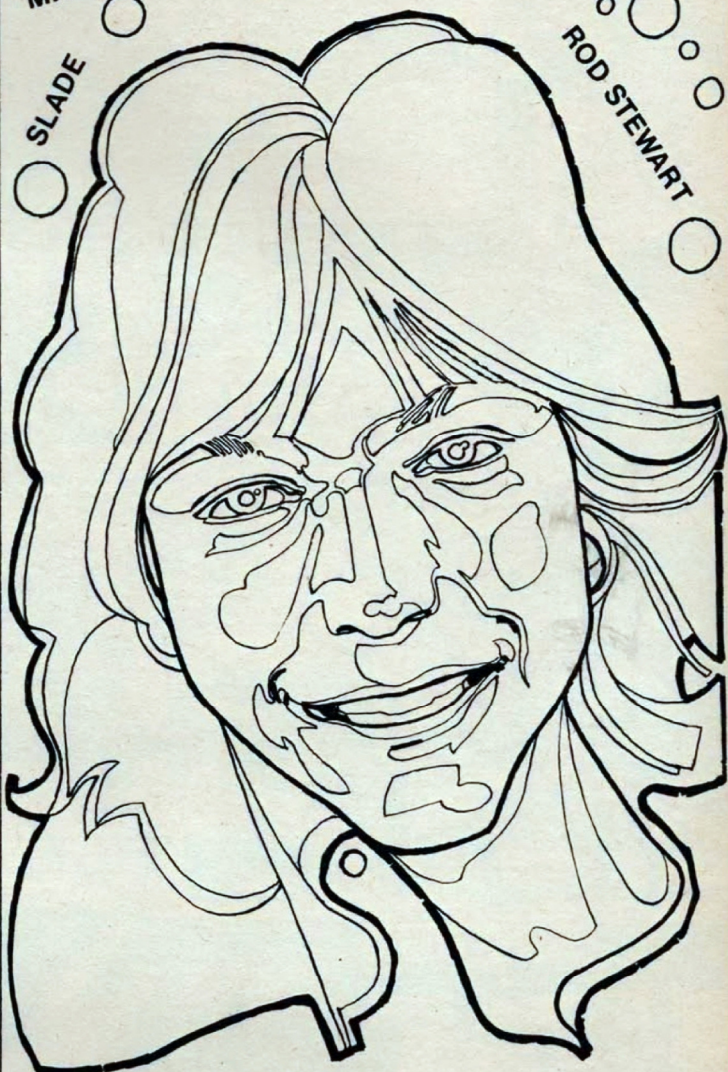

PIC of the POPS

MARC BOLAN

ELVIS

DAVID CASSIDY

ROD STEWART

YOU can win a £2 record voucher and buy the L.P. of your choice by entering for this FREE competition!

Any one of these super-stars could be spinning round on YOUR record player!

25 record vouchers to be won!

50 consolation prizes!

Using paints, crayons or coloured pencils, colour in this pop pic of DAVID CASSIDY!

It can be as bright and colourful—or unusual—as you like!

Once you have done this, cut out your pop pic and keep it until NEXT WEEK when Part II of the competition will appear in "Diana"!

Dear Readers,
Hope you like the super BIG pin-up of DAVID CASSIDY in this week's 'Diana'.

Look out for another 'king-size' pin-up real soon.

Bye,
The Ed
