selves, and can't admit they like David Cassidy, 'cause they think that's not hip enough or sophisticated, then that's their problem, not mine!"

STAR: "Would you ever give a benefit concert like George Harrison did?"

DAVID: "Sure! If there was a certain cause that I really believed in, I would do it! I thought what George Harrison did for the Bangladesh cause was great. I love that album!"

STAR: "Has your successful career affected your family?"

DAVID: "It has touched my family—absolutely! For the most part, my family is all in show business and they understand, but they've still had to change their phone numbers a few times."

STAR: "There is a rumor that your father, actor Jack Cassidy, resents you because you're more popular than he is."

DAVID: "I don't know if I am more popular than he is! If I am, I'd have to go to him and ask him about his feelings. I don't get the feeling that he resents me. I think he's pleased by the success, as am I."

STAR: "We've talked all about the many sides of David Cassidy, except one, your romantic side. Is your romantic life as glamorous as most people think?"

(David gets a mischievous grin on his face and it is hard to guess just what he is going to say!)
