

Your Fans This SUMMER?

by NANCY HARDWICK Editor, STAR Magazine

as I can! Which means that if a fan came up to me and I could tell she had soul and wanted to be kissed, I'd put my arms around her and lay such a kiss on her that she'd be dizzy! I'm gettin' dizzy just thinkin' about it!"

STAR: "Jermaine! A lot of STAR Mag soul sisters are going to do everything they can to be one of the lucky fans who get backstage with you! You'll probably start seeing some bad, bold sisters at your hotels, now that they know just how you feel!"

"How do you guys feel about a fan running up on stage to kiss you?"

DAVID: "Fans that run up on stage have a super special place in my heart! You know, it takes a lot of courage to do that—in front of all those people and with all the security guards there! I groove on kissin' any chick who's brave enough to jump up on stage!"

JERMAINE: "That's my exact feelings! If a chick is foxy enough to jump on stage to kiss me, she really age! I wouldn't kiss a ten year old fan on the lips. I would probably hug her and kiss her on the cheek! But if a fifteen year old girl came up to me, I'd look deeply into her eyes and part my lips, pressing them gently on hers until we're both lost in our kiss!"

MICHAEL: "I think Rick made a good point about a fan's age determining how you should kiss her, on the cheek, or on her forehead."

BUTCH: "That's about the way I see it! I think a kiss is something very important. I feel that I'd be fooling myself and my fan if I kissed her the same way I'll someday kiss the girl I'll marry!"

"But, I also believe in love at first sight! And that you can know that someone is very special the first time you meet her! When that rare and beautiful thing happens, I think your first kiss together should be a kiss of true love!"

JERMAINE: "I can dig it! True love is where it's at. But until I devote my life to one Special Sweetness, I'm gonna spread as much love around deserves a kiss right from my heart and Soul! In fact, I never forget a chick who does that!"

STAR: "Far out! I bet those security guards are going to have a rougher time this summer after your fans read what you two have just said!"

JERMAINE: "I want to meet as many fans as I can in all the cities we play! And I want to kiss each kissable sister's luscious lips till my lips are sore!"

BUTCH: "You're too much, Jermaine!"

RICK: "I could dig helping you out, Jermaine! I've got my bags packed and I'm ready to go! I've always got time for kissing fans!"

STAR: "Rick, the way I've seen those Hollywood girls mob you, I'd say you've got alot of kissing catching up to do right here!"

"Guys, thanks for letting us in on your private thoughts about kissing a fan this summer!"
