DAVID'S GIRLS

TAMMY

Working gives David the opportunity to meet girls who share his professional interests. Sometimes this can lead to a friendship based on mutual respect for the job the other is doing. Sometimes it can lead to dating and fun times, sometimes to rumors and sometimes it can ruin the relationship no matter what! David met Tammy (not her real name) during the filming of a show. They seemed to click. They both loved entertaining, both were very serious about their careers and they just naturally gravitated to each other. Tammy was the kind of girl David would have liked no matter where they met. She was natural, had long shiny hair, didn't wear nail polish, wasn't a clothes horse and wasn't impressed by David just because he was an actor. They started dating and really enjoyed each other's company. But somehow those dates turned into nightmares.

Stories of their romance started appearing in magazines. And when they were out together, photographers almost always happened to turn up. Their relationship suffered. It was turning it into a public duo rather than a private
