PARTRIDGE FAMILY FAN CLUB NEWS CONTINUED FROM PG. 55

After everything was packed, we went back downstairs to the kitchen. Just as we sat down, the doorbell rang! Susan ran to the door, and guess what little red head was at the front step? That's right, your friend and mine, Danny Bondauce!

Susan was very thrilled to get the books and explained that they would keep her busy on the long plane ride! Mrs. Bondauce finally appeared at the door, saying that it was difficult finding a parking space.

"I didn't think you were ever going to find one," said Danny.

Susan laughed, and added, "Well, parking is one problem that I'm going to leave behind me for a month... I really feel carefree!"

Well, if Susan has as nice a time as David did, we're going to have two happy Partridges next season... and speaking of David, he's making up his vacation time, and he's on the road!

David's been out doing concert after concert, including New York and Pennsylvania! We got a call from one of our relatives in Scranton, Pennsylvania, to tell us that David was coming there in a few days, and the town was buzzing with excitement!

David will also be touring Oklahoma, and many other states before the season starts, so keep your eyes open, he may sneak into your hometown without you knowing it!

PARTRIDGE MAILBOX

Dear Cecelia,

When the Partridges stop shooting, do they keep in touch with each other?

Thank you,
Karla Gimenez

Dear Karla,

They sure do! The Partridges are friends off the set as well as on! As a matter of fact, Danny and Dave not only saw each other, they worked with each other... at Hanna Barbara, and also on a secret project... which I'll tell you about next month!
