

EDITOR'S INSIDE STORY!

by Sharon Lee

DID YOU WIN DAVID'S BIKE? When Susan Dey dropped by the office she couldn't resist giving David's bike a trial run! This bike could be yours if you entered our "Win David's Bike Contest" in our May issue! The winner will be announced in our next Partridge issue! Stay tuned for more great contests and prizes this issue!

Hello,

I feel sort of sad while I'm sitting at my typewriter typing this column because this is the last time I'll be writing it!

Starting with our next issue, your new Partridge Family Magazine editor will be Liz Dagucon! Liz is the reason I can still smile about it because I know she's going to do a great job working for you.

Liz was Partridge's Associate Editor for the past year and she's spent just as much time as I have down on the Partridge set talking to all our friends! You've probably read Liz's own column in Tiger Beat Spectacular called "Hollywood Hotline!"

Another reason I can still smile is because we're still going to see lots of one another! First of all, our editor of Fave, Laudy Powell, got married, and is going to be staying home now—although she's agreed to keep in touch, and even do some interviews and stories for us! Liz is going to take over for Laudy on Fave too, as well as Partridge!

Now, as for me—I'm going to be the new editor of Tiger Beat! Everyone really felt so sad when Tiger Beat's editor Ann Moses told us she was moving to northern California and couldn't edit Tiger Beat anymore! Even Ann herself was sad about it because she's had so much fun and has made so many new friends—including you and all your favorite stars!

I was really honored when Ann asked me to take over for her and I hope I can do as great a job as she's been doing for the past six years!

But Ann, too, has promised to keep in touch and whenever she's in town she's going to do special interviews and stories for us! Isn't that super?

Susan Dey stopped up at the office to chat and get some new pictures taken and discussed some stories with her new Partridge editor, Liz! When I told the gang on the Partridge set that Liz would be taking over as editor they were delighted! Liz is a very familiar face on the Partridge set and she's going to keep on bringing you all the up-to-the-minute exclusive Partridge happenings you like to hear about!

So, even though this is the end of my column, I'm not going to say goodbye! After all, I hope to be seeing you from the pages of Tiger Beat and Tiger Beat Spectacular!

Love, Sharon

SUSAN DEY, ME, AND new Partridge Editor Liz Dagucon (in the middle) look over an issue of Partridge. Liz is very excited about being your new editor and can hardly wait to meet all of you in her first big issue!
