

THE DAVID PARTRIDGE SUSAN PANEL

If you've got a special question for David or Susan, just send it along to PARTRIDGE PANEL, 7060 Hollywood Blvd., #800, Hollywood, California 90028. David and Susan are delighted to talk with YOU.

FOR DAVID:

Dear David,

What do you think about the Women's Lib Movement?

Janie Brandon
Redlands, Calif.

Dear Janie,

Well, that depends on how much they want to liberate! I agree with the idea that a woman is a human being first and why shouldn't she be able to fulfill her desires and goals just as men do. I think if a woman wants to have a career outside of the home it's up to her and no one should stop her from pursuing it. I don't think that being a female should make any difference as to what she can and what she can't do. If the husband and wife both work, I think they should pretty well share the household responsibilities, but if the woman is a housewife and mother, then I think that it is her duty to take care of the home and children while the husband's out earning the bread!

Dear David,

Is it true that your friend and roommate Sam Hyman didn't go along to Europe with you on your vacation because you had an argument and don't like each other any more? I hope it isn't true!

Brenda Bennay
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Brenda,

Now where did you ever hear that one? Sam and I are still best friends and we get along just as groovy as ever! I went to Europe alone because Sam had other commitments and sometimes it's good to get away from people you know for a bit, it makes you even happier to get back home!

Dear David,

After being on such a long vacation was it difficult to get back to work again?

Zody Summer
Boston, Mass.

Dear Zody,

Although being on vacation was great, it was even greater getting back to work! I think I love singing and acting more than taking vacations and I was looking forward to getting back on the road again! I love being able to give concerts for you and when you're doing something you love, how can it ever be too difficult?

FOR SUSAN:

Dear Susan,

My boyfriend is 20 and I'm 17 and we have been engaged for the past three months. Sometimes I feel uncertain about marriage, but yet I'm excited to become his Mrs. Do you think I should wait?

Karen Matheson
Pacific Grove, Ca.

Dear Karen,

If you ever feel uncertain about anything, the best thing to do is wait. Getting married is a major step in one's life and it is something that should be examined thoroughly. If you say yes, be completely sure. Remember, once you take the step, you can't turn around and change your mind without hurting somebody or yourself. I think it would be wise if you gave yourselves more time. I can imagine how excited
