"I worked with Susan for the first time last year when my 'Getting Together' series did its spin-off from the 'Partridge Family,' and I found her to be every bit as nice and easy to get along with as I knew she'd be. I hope I'll have a chance to work with her again sometime!"

"The first time I met Susan was over a year ago when we were guest judges at a beauty contest. And even though I was impressed with all the lovely contestants, I was more impressed with Susan! I think she's great, and very lovely, too!"

"Susan Dey. What does she mean to me? I could say sunshine on a cloudy day, a smile in the rain, or a shoulder to lean on. She is all of those, but more important, she's a real live beautiful person, inside and out! Being friends with her makes each day a little more wonderful!"

"You know one of the things I like best about Susan? The fact that she's so nice! She always spends time talking to me, about 'girl talk' and many other things! She really is a wonderful friend, and I'm glad to say I know her!"

"One of the things I admire most about Susan is the fact that she doesn't boss anyone around (us kids, I mean!) just because she's older. She respects us for what we can do, and we respect her in return. She's a wonderful TV-sister!"

"I've watched Susan on the 'Partridge Family' numerous times and knew how well she played the part of a young singing star. The fact that she was so good made me think it may be difficult for her to adjust to another kind of role, but I realize now after working on our first film together, 'Skyjacked' how wrong I was! She acted like a real pro in our flick about airplane hijacking, and I'm glad I was lucky enough to have her co-star with me!"
