

thursday

is photo session day. With you along David can't help but smile for the camera! After all, you're one of the reasons David's eyes smile.

friday

means a quiet ride across the meadow, and letting the warm sun cover your body. It's time, too, for softly whispered secret words.

saturday

brings traveling — boarding planes, waiting back stage and singing. Giving concerts brings special moments to share just with you.

sunday

a day for rest, for remembering, for dreams, plans, hopes — and love.
