THE BROLINS

Good news for Osmond fans who've been asking when the group will return to Canada! If all goes as planned, the Osmonds are slated for another CNE engagement this August! . . . Kurt Russell's third movie for Disney is already in the works! He'll star with Dean Jones and Michael McGreevey in "A Son-in-Law For Charlie McCready" . . . Meanwhile, Kurt's preparing for his baseball career soon to get underway. His team from last year has disbanded, but many former teammates will join Kurt to form a new team again this summer . . . Danny Bonaduce did a cameo role in Arte Johnson's pilot "Call Home" . . . Chris Knight is a believer in horoscopes and astrology, and claims even fortune cookies have accurately predicted his future! . . . While appearing in Las Vegas, the Grass Roots stopped by the International Hotel to catch Elvis Presley's performance . . . Congratulations to the James Brolins on the February 7th birth of their son Jess. The Brolins have always wanted "four J's in the family," and now they have it with James, Jane, Josh, & Jess! . . . Incidentally, little Jess can be seen with his dad in the upcoming flick, "Skyjacked." He was one of the few five-day-olds in history to make a screen debut! . . . Chad Everett has had three movie offers while "Medical Center" was on hiatus . . . Bill Bixby and his wife, actress Brenda Benet, starred together in the stage production "Come Blow Your Horn" at New Jersey's Meadowbrook Theater . . . Grass Root Rob Grill has purchased a new station wagon . . . Brandon Cruz just returned from New York where he was chairman of the first national "Pushback" campaign—an anti-drug movement for students in elementary school, where the drug problem is increasing . . . When Sly & The Family Stone go on tour, they have to be selective about their airlines! The reason is simply because they take along their dogs (up to 20 at a time!), and not all airlines have accommodations for quite so many pets! . . . Baseball scouts in Indiana say Jackie Jackson is a top prospect as a major league pitcher . . . Susan Dey spent several weeks in New York vacationing with her family . . . Todd Crespi has a favorite retreat when he likes to be alone. An isolated tree house in the Santa Cruz Mountains has been a favorite place of his for ages! . . . The Who's rock opera "Tommy" about a blind boy who's a pinball wizard, has opened at the Aquarius Theater in Hollywood. In preparation of its debut, pinball tournaments were held at the theater! . . . Wes Stern has rented a new home right along the beach . . . Paul McCartney revealed that the simple lyrics in "Bip Bop" off the "Wings" LP, was intended so that his little daughter could easily sing along . . . Jose Feliciano has opened "Feliciano's" restaurant in Newport Beach, specializing in continental food . . . G. G. Shinn, ex-Boogie King member, is the new lead singer for Chase . . . February 14th was the day of the official break-up of Steppenwolf. Announced at a special meeting for the press, the group intends to pursue individual careers outside of their Steppenwolf image. The 14th of February was also proclaimed "Steppenwolf Day," by the mayor of Los Angeles, and the president of Dunhill Records presented an
