

Q TIGER beat A questions answers

Q. I saw this fabulous-looking guy awhile back on "Room 222" and his name was Todd Crespi. Can you please print a picture of him and give me some information? He's really the most!

A. Here's your picture, and now for some information! Todd was born 20 years ago in Frankfort, Germany on October 24. He makes his home in Los Angeles, and has green eyes and blondish-brown hair. Todd stands 5'11", weighs 145 pounds, and when it comes to dating, he's interested in quiet, sensitive girls!

JAY

Q. I'd like to know what kind of movies Jay Osmond likes best? My favorites are comedies!

A. Jay likes comedies too, but when it comes to serious movie-viewing, he likes action-filled pictures best!

Q. Did David Cassidy ever sell his old blue Mustang?

A. Yes, he sure did, and earlier last year got a white Corvette Stingray in its place.

Q. Oliver seems to have so many talents, can you tell me if he ever went to college and what he majored in?

A. Oliver attended both Brooklyn College and the University of North Carolina, where he majored in radio, television and motion pictures.

Q. Can you tell me if Mrs. Osmond's maiden name is Twinsky? That's what I'd been told, and if that's the case, we're probably related!

A. Sorry to disappoint you, but Mrs. Osmond's maiden name is Davis.

Q. Who was the darling young guy who starred as the go-between in the movie of the same name? He was so cute, I saw the movie three times!

A. Hey, that's quite a record! The young star of "The Go-Between" was Dominic Guard.

Q. Where does Ronny Howard make his home, and what is his favorite city?

A. Ronny's family makes their home in Burbank, California, and his favorite city is Jackson Hole, Wyoming!

Q. My friends and I heard that Donny Osmond was going to be on a television special with Bob Crane and Michael Landon. Is this true?

A. Yes, at the time of this writing Donny is scheduled to appear with Bob and Michael in "The Real World of Make-Believe," a TV special that'll be co-produced by "American Bandstand's" Dick Clark.

Q. I am madly in love with Browning Bryant! Can you please tell me a little something about him?

A. Browning was born in Pickens, South Carolina on January 24, 1956. He's been entertaining for many years which has enabled him to do extensive traveling, and because of it, he enjoys hearing from fans everywhere! If you'd care to drop him a line, just write to the A&R Talent Agency, 1428 E. Independence Blvd., Charlotte, N.C.

BROWNING

BOBBY

Q. I have a bet going with my girlfriend about Bobby Sherman's gold records. I say he sold over a million copies of both "Easy Come, Easy Go" and "Julie Do Ya Love Me?" but she disagrees. Who's right?

A. We're glad to say that you're right! Both records were certified gold; "Easy Come, Easy Go" on April 2, 1970, and "Julie Do Ya Love Me?" on September 3, 1970.

Q. Can you tell me where Karen & Richard Carpenter were born and where they now make their home?

A. We sure can! Both Karen and Richard were born in New Haven, Connecticut, and now make their home in Downey, California.

Q. Can you tell me if the Osmonds' music is heard in Mexico as well as the United States? Yesterday I was listening to the radio and heard a station from Mexico, and it sounded like the Osmonds singing! Please tell me if I'm right!

A. If you think you heard the Osmonds singing, we're sure you probably did! After all, the Osmonds are loved just as much in Mexico as they are everywhere else in the world!

Q. Is it true that Butch Patrick is not using his real name now that he's an actor?

A. Well, it's partially true! He claims he's been using the nickname "Butch" all his life, but the name on his birth certificate is Patrick Lilley.

BUTCH

BRANDON

Q. Was Brandon Cruz ever on the "Dating Game?"

A. Yes he was, and just recently too, as a matter of fact! Brandon and his date won an evening to the Hollywood premiere of John Wayne's movie, "The Cowboys."

Q. My friend keeps telling me she sees a washing machine commercial on TV with two guys who look like Donny and Alan Osmond. Is she telling me the truth?

A. We don't want to accuse your friend of lying, because she probably sees a strong resemblance between the Osmonds and the two guys in the commercial. But as far as it being the Osmonds, they have not done any recent TV commercials for washing machines!

Q. I live in Canada and wanted to know if I can get a subscription to TIGER BEAT? How much would it cost?

A. A subscription to TIGER BEAT for readers outside of the United States is $6.00 a year. Canadians are indeed welcome to subscribe! See our subscription blank on page 58.

Q. I received some David Cassidy stickers in my Partridge Fan Club kit and wanted to know what S.W.A.K. stands for on the stickers?

A. S.W.A.K. means simply "sealed with a kiss!"

Q. Is Bobby Sherman really quitting show business?

A. No, no, a thousand times no! Bobby likes show business way too much to give it up!

Q. Whom is Bridget Hanley married to?

A. Bridget's husband is a very talented TV director, E. W. Swackhamer. He used to direct "Here Come the Brides!"
