

DAVID'S OWN PERSONAL PHOTO ALBUM

"Hello there—and welcome back to the world of my childhood." That's handsome David Bruce Cassidy talking to you, and he's about to resume showing you a complete month-by-month photo album of himself through all the years of his youth. Though David was born in New York City, he grew up in West Orange, N.J. and at the age of nine moved to Los Angeles. His mom always carefully kept a photo album of her "growing boy"—so join David now and share his Private Photo Album with him.

That's David on the left, his cousin Barbara in the middle and his Uncle Stan on the right. David was three-years-old when this picture was taken.

That very same day David and Barbara, supervised by David's Aunt Marion, learned the dance that was the current craze—the "loop-de-loop."
